STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

MIKE STROUHAL

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
TENTH SEASON
UNIV. OF SAINT MARY, '03

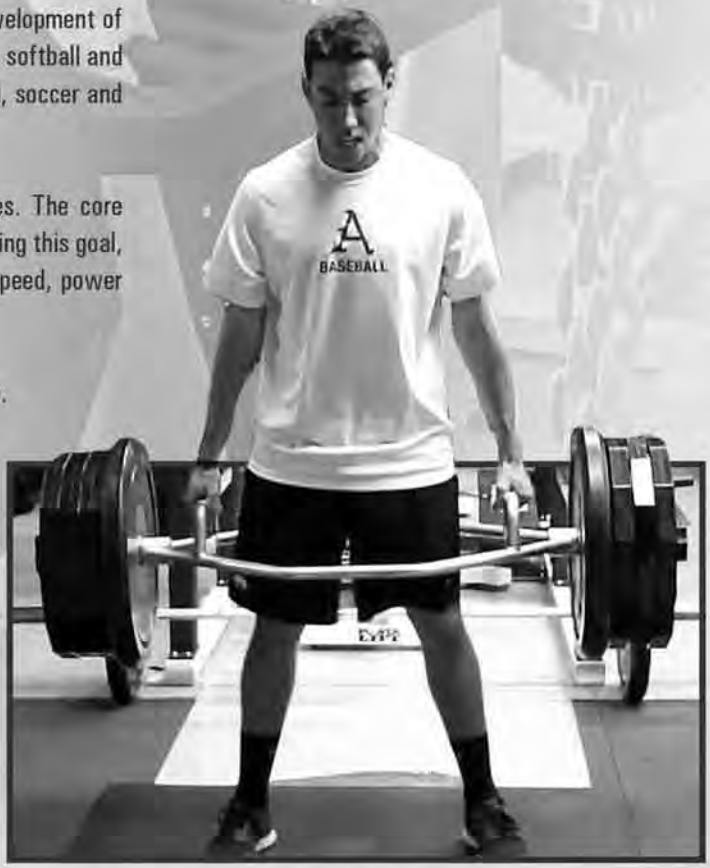
- THE RAZORBACK BASEBALL TEAM WORKS OUT IN THE WALKER FAMILY TRAINING CENTER, WHICH IS A 38,000-SQUARE FOOT FACILITY.
- THE WEIGHT ROOM IS ONE OF THE LARGEST IN THE COUNTRY AND HAS BEEN STUDIED AND COPIED BY OTHER UNIVERSITIES.
- THE WEIGHT ROOM IS BROKEN UP INTO A 19,000-SQUARE FOOT WEIGHT ROOM AND A 19,000-SQUARE FOOT CONDITIONING AREA.
- THE BASEBALL TEAM ALSO HAS ACCESS TO AN AUXILIARY WEIGHT ROOM AT BAUM STADIUM, CONVENIENT FOR IN-SEASON LIFTING.

A native of Kansas City, Kan., Strouhal is a 2003 graduate of the University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth, Kan., with a bachelor's in sports management and coaching. While at Saint Mary, he started four years in baseball, three years in football and began his coaching career as a strength and conditioning coach.

Strouhal is certified through the NSCA and USAW. He has overseen the development of gymnastics, baseball, freshman football, men's track sprinters and jumpers, softball and men's tennis. He has assisted with football, men's and women's basketball, soccer and volleyball, and directed an internship program.

His philosophy is based on improving performance and decreasing injuries. The core objective of his program is to develop athleticism. To assist athletes in reaching this goal, his workouts focus on increasing soft tissue quality, mobility, flexibility, speed, power and strength.

Strouhal is married to the former Allison May and they reside in Fayetteville.



SPORTS MEDICINE

COREY WOOD

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER
SECOND SEASON
EAST CAROLINA, '08

Corey Wood joined the University of Arkansas as part of the athletic training staff in June 2011. Wood spent the previous two years working with Wichita State as a graduate assistant trainer. While working with WSU's baseball team, he was responsible for the Shockers' day-to-day injury prevention and rehabilitation. Wood also served as the host athletic trainer for the 2011 Missouri Valley Conference baseball tournament and was an intern for the WSU strength and conditioning staff for a year.

Prior to WSU, Wood worked as an intern with the Cleveland Indians through their spring training in 2009. He directed the aquatic therapy sessions as well as oversaw the strength activities of the team.

Wood earned his bachelor's degree from East Carolina University in May of 2008 and his master's degree in May of 2011 from Wichita State.

TRAVEL & TRANSPORTATION

THE RAZORBACKS USE A VARIETY OF TRAVEL MODES DURING THE SEASON FROM CHARTER AIRCRAFT TO COMMERCIAL AIRLINES TO CHARTER BUSES.

RAZORBACKS IN THE COMMUNITY

THE BASEBALL TEAM IS INVOLVED IN MANY COMMUNITY SERVICE EFFORTS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR, INCLUDING READING AT LOCAL ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS, ENCOURAGING FITNESS AT THE GRASS ROOTS LEVEL AND RAISING MONEY FOR UNDERPRIVILEGED CHILDREN DURING THE HOLIDAY SEASON.

MEDIA ATTENTION

THE RAZORBACKS RECEIVE COVERAGE FROM LOCAL, REGIONAL AND NATIONAL MEDIA OUTLETS THROUGHOUT THE SEASON. IN 2012, ARKANSAS APPEARED ON TELEVISION A SCHOOL-RECORD 30 TIMES, INCLUDING 16 GAMES ON THE ESPN FAMILY OF NETWORKS AND ESPN3.

Arkansas Athletic Media Relations

The University of Arkansas athletic media relations office is located on the north side of Barnhill Arena with office hours from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. You can often reach us at Barnhill after hours, but if not, please leave a message on our voice mail system.

Interview Policy

Please direct all requests for interviews with coaches and players to Chad Crunk. For home SEC weekends, Coach Dave Van Horn will hold his weekly press conference on Thursday with players and assistant coaches available following Thursday's practice. On road SEC weekends, Coach Van Horn will hold his weekly press conference on Wednesday with players and assistant coaches available following Wednesday's practice. Players are not available for interviews on gamedays, except for post-game interviews. Post-game press conferences are held in the indoor batting cages located down the third base line. Coach Van Horn will address the media first, followed by the two or three most requested Razorback players. In the event of a double header, the only Arkansas player available between games for interviews is the starting pitcher of game one. The Arkansas clubhouse is off limits to the media at all times.

Credentials

Members of the media should contact Chad Crunk to request individual game credentials for Razorback baseball home games. Credential requests should be made no later than noon (CT) the day before the scheduled contest and should be directed to the media relations office at 479-575-2753 or sent by e-mail to Chad Crunk (mcrunk@uark.edu). Credential requests for away games should be made to the media relations contact of the home team.

E-mail Updates

Members of the media may request to be added to the Arkansas media relations baseball e-mail group. Subscribers will receive game notes, game stories and other information. To subscribe, send a request to Chad Crunk. Please identify yourself and your organization in your request as this service is only available to members of the media.

Gameday Media Services

The Arkansas media relations staff provides scorecards, rosters, updated statistics and results for each team in the Baum Stadium press box prior to each home game. Box scores, play-by-play and any postgame notes are disseminated approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game. An Associated Press-style game story is also produced by the media relations office. Members of the media may request these stories be sent to their organization via e-mail by contacting a member of the media relations office.

Wireless Internet

The Baum Stadium press box is equipped with wireless internet for use by the media. Media members should log on to the "UA Wireless"network, open their internet browser and enter their email address to gain access to the network.

Live Radio/TV

The University of Arkansas Athletics Department retains all copyrights to its home events. All visiting radio stations must contact Director of Broadcasting Chuck Barrett 48 hours prior to make arrangements. Non-conference opponents may be subject to line charges as well as rights fees. Other stations requesting a phone line should contact SBC directly. Requests for live or tape-delayed television rights should be made in advance, and in writing, to Associate AD for Marketing and Licensing Brian Pracht (bpracht@uark.edu).

IP-Based Streaming

The Arkansas Athletics Department retains all streaming rights for its home events. Shared streams may be provided to opponents on a reciprocating basis. Please contact Director of RazorVision Michelle Glover (mlglover@uark.edu) for any requests for IP-based data, audio or video streaming.

Facilities/Parking

The Arkansas baseball team conducts all practices and all games at Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. Baum Stadium is located just off Razorback Road south of Martin Luther King, Jr., Boulevard. Game Day parking for the media is located in the parking lot directly behind the Randal Tyson Track Center. Only cars with a parking credential will be allowed access to the parking lot.

Photographers

No cameras are allowed on the Baum Stadium playing surface during games. Photographers are encouraged to use the photo wells at the end of each dugout and behind home plate.

2013 Baseball Media Guide

The 2013 edition of the Arkansas baseball media guide was written, typeset and edited by Assistant Media Relations Director Chad Crunk. Layout and design by Chad Crunk and Andrew Reynolds. Covers designed by Andrew Reynolds. Editorial assistance provided by Mary Lynn Gibson, Zack Higbee, Zach Lawson, Phil Pierce, Jeri Thorpe, Kevin Trainor and Jackson Braswell. For the 22nd-consecutive season, every pitch of the Arkansas baseball season can be heard on the Razorback Sports Network from IMG College. The network spans the state of Arkansas and can also be heard in neighboring states as well as across the globe via the internet.

The Razorback Baseball Radio Network is one of the largest collegiate baseball radio networks in the nation. With more than 20 affiliates, Razorback baseball games are never more than a dial away no matter where an Arkansas fan resides.

Chuck Barrett returns to the booth for his 22nd season as the network's play-by-play announcer. Barrett has called nearly every pitch since the network's inception in 1992 and his voice has become synonymous with Arkansas baseball. Barrett is joined in the booth by former Arkansas Sports Information Director Rick Schaeffer who returned to Razorback baseball broadcasts in 2001 after a five-year absence. Schaeffer handles color analyst duties for most games but has filled in for the occasional play-by-play spot when Barrett has been unavailable.

Chuck Barrett is in his sixth year as a full-time member of the Arkansas athletic department, but his affiliation with the university goes back to 1992.

Barrett handles radio play-by-play duties for football, men's basketball and baseball. He is also the host of Mike'd Up with Mike Anderson, a speaker at Razorback Club meetings and handles all voice-over work for the athletic department, in addition to other duties.

Barrett, who has been named Arkansas Sportscaster of the Year three times (2007, 2008 and 2010), originally hails from Clarksville, Ark., and has been a part of the Arkansas Razorback Sports Network football radio broadcasts for 19 years in a variety of roles. He became the play-by-play voice of the Arkansas men's basketball team at the start of the 2010-11 season, replacing Mike Nail who held the position for 29 years. He has handled Razorback baseball radio play-by-play for the past 21 seasons.

Prior to joining the Arkansas staff, he was a radio talk show host for Citadel Broadcasting for 15 years.

Barrett, who is married to Precious, is a board member of the Brandon Burlsworth Foundation.

2013 RAZORBACKS

Now entering his second decade at the helm of the Arkansas baseball program, head coach Dave Van Horn has elevated the Razorbacks to one of the nation's premier teams year in and year out. Over his first 10 seasons, Van Horn has led Arkansas to three College World Series appearances, 10 NCAA Tournament berths, one Southeastern Conference overall title, three SEC Western Division championships and a total of 405 wins, averaging more than 40 wins a season.

For the third time in his Arkansas tenure, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to Omaha, Neb., and the College World Series in 2012. Arkansas used a dominant pitching staff, timely hitting and strong defense to win the Houston Regional and Waco Super Regional to advance to the seventh College World Series in program history. The Razorbacks won their first two games of the College World Series and finished in a tie for third, equaling the second-best finish to a season in school history. Arkansas finished the season with a 46-22 record, the most wins for UA under Van Horn and the sixth-highest single-season win total in school history. The Razorbacks also won 40 games for the fourth straight season and for the 18th time in program history. Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, the NCBWA poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Arkansas had a knack for winning the close games in 2012. The Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run, including a pair of 1-0 victories.

Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach in 2012 as he earned his 400th win at Arkansas during UA's NCAA Tournament run. Van Horn's 400th win was a significant one as it came against Rice in the Houston Regional. The 1-0 victory over the eighth-ranked Owls put the Razorbacks in the driver's seat of the regional, which they would eventually win with a 5-1 win over Sam Houston State. Van Horn is sure to reach another career milestone during 2013 as he enters the season just 10 victories away from 1,000 in his illustrious coaching career. In his 24 years of coaching, Van Horn has amassed a 990-463 (.681) record and is 405-223 (.645) at Arkansas. Entering the 2013 season, Van Horn ranks 17th among active coaches in winning percentage and 30th among active coaches in career victories.

In what many people saw as a rebuilding season in 2011, Van Horn guided the Razorbacks to the program's fourth SEC Western Division championship and to the NCAA Tournament. After posting a 38-20 overall record through the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were sent to the NCAA Tempe Regional hosted by Arizona State. After dropping its opening game of the regional, Arkansas rallied to reach the regional championship game before eventually falling to the Sun Devils. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record and closed the season ranked in the top 25 of every major poll and had an RPI of 14.

Following the 2011 season, Van Horn had an opportunity that many coaches dream of, serving on the coaching staff of Team USA. Van Horn, along with DJ Baxendale, Dominic Ficociello, Matt Reynolds and Ryne Stanek spent their summer with Team USA's Collegiate National Team and helped the squad to an 11-2-1 record, including beating Team Japan in a best-of-five series to end the summer.

Van Horn led Arkansas to the NCAA Tournament for the ninth consecutive year in 2010. The Razorbacks also reached the Super Regional round in back-to-back years for the first time in program history. On the strength of a 40-18 record after the SEC Tournament, the Razorbacks were selected to host an NCAA Regional for the fifth time in school history. Arkansas advanced to the Super Regionals with a 7-2 victory over Washington State in a winner-take-all regional championship game. In the Super Regionals, the Razorbacks went toe-to-toe with the tournament's top seed, Arizona State, on its home field. Arkansas lost a pair of 12-inning heartbreakers to finish the season with a 43-21 record.

Van Horn also achieved three coaching milestones during the 2010 regular season. The Razorback skipper picked up his 300th win at Arkansas on April 9 in an 8-3 win over Mississippi State. On February 27 in a 10-8 win over Troy, Van Horn earned his 600th win as a Division I head coach. He recorded career win No. 900 on May 21 in a 4-3 victory at Vanderbilt.

Arkansas also set a new school record for attendance in 2010 as 292,734 fans saw a game at Baum Stadium, besting the previous record of 266,270 set during the 2007 season. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704 average).

For the second time in his Razorback coaching career, Van Horn and his team made the ultimate postseason push and collected the program's sixth trip to Omaha for the 2009 College World Series. Rebounding from a late-season slump, Arkansas advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Baseball Tournament before earning its eighth-consecutive berth into an NCAA Regional. Supported by their fans, the Razorbacks hit the road and swept their way through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, besting Washington State and national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State along the way. In Omaha, Arkansas won two games and tied for a third-place national finish, equaling the 1985 team for the second-best finish in program history.

The 2009 regular season had its share of highlights, too. The Razorbacks jumped out to an 8-0 start in SEC play for the first time in program history. The club achieved another first when Collegiate Baseball released its April 6 poll with Arkansas ranked No. 1, the first top ranking by any publication in program history. The Razorbacks faced Arizona State in a midweek series that same week, the first No. 1 vs. No. 1 matchup at Baum Stadium. Arkansas solidified its top billing by knocking off the Sun Devils in both games.

In the finale against Arizona State, the Razorbacks had the support of a then-Baum Stadium-record 11,014 fans. That number is a significant reminder of the traditionally strong attendance figures for the Arkansas baseball team. In 2009, the Razorbacks finished No. 2 in national attendance with an average of 7,906 fans per game.

The highly decorated coach has both individual and team honors throughout his 24-year coaching resume beginning at Texarkana (Texas) Community College all the way through the present. Individually, he has been named national coach of the year twice, regional coach of the year twice and conference coach of the year four times. His teams have made five College World Series appearances, won five outright conference championships, a Division II National Championship and made 14 consecutive appearances in the NCAA Tournament. Van Horn is one of only 11 coaches in NCAA history to lead two programs to the College World Series.

Since joining the Razorbacks as head coach, Van Horn has led his teams to a SEC Championship, three SEC Western Division titles, 10 NCAA Tournament berths and three College World Series appearances. His players have earned 15 All-America honors, 17 All-SEC nods, 82 SEC Academic Honor Roll spots and 10 Capital One Academic All-District accolades. Not resting on his laurels, Van Horn has kept his competitive juices flowing as he seeks to bring a national championship to his alma mater.

Not only have his players flourished in collegiate baseball, but several have gone on to solid professional baseball careers. More than 100 former players have signed professional contracts, including former Razorback standouts Zack Cox, Brett Eibner, Logan Forsythe, Craig Gentry, Dallas Keuchel, James McCann, Drew Smyly and Jess Todd. At the end of the 2012 season, Forsythe (Padres), Gentry (Rangers), Keuchel (Astros) and Smyly (Tigers) were all playing at the big league level. Other past stars for Van Horn include Ken Harvey (Kansas City Royals), Jamal Strong (Seattle Mariners) and Dan Johnson (Oakland Athletics).

When Van Horn took over the Razorback program prior to the 2003 season, he inherited a team that lacked depth and was thought of as weak within the SEC. Changing the culture of the team immediately, Van Horn guided his inaugural squad to both the SEC and NCAA Tournaments. His team was ranked in all four major baseball polls throughout the year and picked up series wins at No. 6 South Carolina and No. 5 Auburn.

The success of the program and Van Horn's no-nonsense approach to his team has endeared him to the Razorback faithful. The Arkansas fan base has grown steadily since Van Horn was given the reins of the program and three renovations have been completed at Baum Stadium since his arrival to accommodate the growing numbers. Baum Stadium, already one of the nicest collegiate baseball parks in the nation, has grown with the addition of nearly 5,000 chair back seats, 32 luxury boxes and now has a capacity of 10,737.

One of the things that Van Horn is known for is recruiting fundamental players and molding them into the stars of tomorrow. In his first season with Arkansas, only two Razorbacks were taken in the Major League Baseball first year player draft. That number has grown significantly over the years with a high water mark of nine taken after the 2007 season. Three of Arkansas' stars, Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008) and Zack Cox (2010) were selected in the first round of the draft and 21 have been picked in the first 10 rounds since he took over, with Matt Reynolds (2nd round, New York Mets), Nolan Sanburn (2nd round, Oakland Athletics) and DJ Baxendale (10th round, Minnesota Twins) all being taken in the first 10 rounds of the 2012 MLB Draft.

The Razorbacks have been successful in every facet of the game over the past 10 seasons. Hitting was the focal point in some seasons while pitching dominated in others, but Van Horn knows that to accomplish his ultimate goal it takes a total team effort.

In 2007, Arkansas won the Razorbacks' third SEC Western Division title when they went 18-12 in league play. The Razorbacks were 43-21 overall, hosted their fourth NCAA Regional and finished the season No. 18 in the final Collegiate Baseball rankings.

That team was one of Van Horn's best in terms of individual pitching prospects. Two-time first-team All-American Nick Schmidt was taken by the San Diego Padres in the first round of the MLB Draft (No. 23 overall). Right-handers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were each taken in the second round by St. Louis and Pittsburgh, respectively. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors.

The excitement around Baum Stadium that season also brought the Razorback nation out in record numbers. Arkansas fans set the school record for average attendance while also setting the then-NCAA mark for average attendance in a season with 8,089 tickets sold per game.

Schmidt's success on the mound was a continuation of his 2006 season when the lefty was named the SEC Pitcher of the Year by the league coaches. The Razorbacks went 39-21 that season and hosted another NCAA Regional.

A hot start to the 2005 season had the Razorbacks ranked as high as No. 5 nationally as they opened the year 20-2, but a rash of bad luck sidetracked what was shaping up to be a magical year. Despite the setbacks, the Razorbacks did come just a breath away from pulling one of the nation's biggest upsets as it won its first two games at the NCAA Austin Regional. Arkansas would go all the way to the final game of the regional before losing to eventual national champion, Texas.

Arkansas' 2004 season was one for the history books as the Razorbacks won 45 games, shared the SEC regular-season title, hosted NCAA Regional and Super Regional games and made its fifth appearance at the College World Series. The following all came true despite the Razorbacks getting picked to finish last in the SEC's Western Division by the league coaches. Along the way, Arkansas won 19 SEC games, swept a weekend series in Baton Rouge, La., against No. 2 LSU and dispatched a tough Florida State team in the Super Regional in two games. The Razorback sweep of LSU was the first time since 1988 that the Tigers had been swept at home by a conference opponent. The Razorback accomplishments led to a top 10 finish in all four major collegiate baseball polls, including a No. 6 ranking by Baseball America.

Prior to taking the helm of the Arkansas program on June 21, 2002, Van Horn enjoyed a very successful five-year run as the head coach at the University of Nebraska. In a short period of time, he built a once-fledgling program into a national powerhouse. Prior to his arrival, the Cornhuskers had made just four postseason appearances in 108 years of baseball history. With their new skipper on the bench, Nebraska went to four NCAA Tournaments and two College World Series.

During his stint with Nebraska, Van Horn amassed a 214-92 (.699) record, won three consecutive Big 12 Tournament titles and earned Nebraska's first regular-season conference title in 51 years. He was twice named the American Baseball Coaches Association's Midwest Region Coach of the Year and posted back-to-back 50-win seasons in 2000 and 2001. In his second season with Nebraska, Van Horn guided his club to its first NCAA Tournament berth in 18 years after it won the Big 12 Tournament, its first title of any kind in nearly 50 years.

Similar to what he has done at Arkansas, Nebraska's players shined with Van Horn at the helm. The Cornhuskers had at least one player named finalist for national player of the year honors in three seasons including a pair of Howser Award Finalists. Seven players were named first-team All-America and 26 earned All-Big 12 accolades including a school record nine in 2000. The Cornhuskers also excelled in the classroom with 30 Phillips 66 Academic All-Big 12 selections (21 first-teamers) and seven players named academic all-district.

Prior to his move to Nebraska, Van Horn coached three seasons with Northwestern State in Natchitoches, La., his first foray as a head coach in Division I. He went 106-65 (.620) in those three seasons and won two Southland Conference regular-season titles (1995 and 1997). Each title also earned him Southland Conference Coach of the Year honors.

Van Horn spent one season at the Division II level, coaching Central Missouri State in 1994 and his effects there were awe-inspiring. Taking the reins of the program with just six weeks of preparation before the season, the Mules got off to a quick start by winning 12 of its first 13 games and eventually put together a 21-game winning streak. CMSU won the MIAA Conference Championship and the tournament title before eventually dominating at the NCAA Championships to win the school's first national championship. In 2000, Central Missouri honored Van Horn and his 1994 team by inducting them into the Central Missouri State Hall of Fame.

The storied career of Van Horn as a head coach began with a humble start at Texarkana (Texas) Community College in 1989. In five seasons with the Bulldogs, Van Horn guided Texarkana to a 214-72 (.748) record. He set records for single season wins in four of his five seasons beginning with his first and guided his 1992 squad to the NJCAA Texas Eastern Conference Championships.

Prior to his first stint as a head coach, Van Horn worked with the man he replaced at Arkansas, Coach Norm DeBriyn, for four seasons as a graduate assistant, assisting the Razorbacks to a pair of College World Series. Arkansas was 184-71-1 (.721) while he was a GA and made the NCAA Regional Tournament in each of his four seasons.

Van Horn's playing career was spent in the infield where he was a highly touted player. Two seasons at McLennan (Texas) Community College earned him All-America, Region 5 Player of the Year, all-conference and all-region honors. The standout defensive third baseman was drafted by the Chicago White Sox, but instead Van Horn transferred to Arkansas.

In one year with the Razorbacks, Van Horn earned All-Southwest Conference honors as well as the team's most valuable player and SWC Newcomer of the Year accolades. Following his junior year, the Atlanta Braves selected Van Horn in the 10th round of the 1982 draft. Van Horn would spend three seasons with the Braves organization before returning to Fayetteville to begin his coaching career.

Van Horn is married to the former Karen Lee. The couple has two daughters, Hollan (19) and Mariel (15).

Todd Butler joined the Razorback staff in July of 2005 and is known around the country for his ability to attract the best talent and develop strong hitters. The Razorbacks use those talents to their fullest as Butler serves as the hitting instructor, outfield coach and recruiting coordinator. Butler is in his eighth year on the Razorback coaching staff and is in his 16th year as an assistant coach in the Southeastern Conference. Butler was promoted to Arkansas' associate head coach following the 2012 season.

In his seven seasons at Arkansas, Butler has helped the Razorbacks to two College World Series appearances, seven NCAA regional berths, three NCAA super regional appearances and two SEC Western Division titles. In addition, Butler has constructed five top-10 recruiting classes and had 46 players taken in the MLB Draft.

For the second time in his tenure at Arkansas, Butler helped Arkansas to the College World Series in 2012. Timely hitting and strong defense helped the Razorbacks win their first two games in Omaha and ultimately finish in a tie for third. The Razorback offense finished near the top of the SEC in several offensive categories during league play. Against the rugged SEC schedule, Arkansas was second in on base percentage (.355), second in runs scored (158), second in RBI (141), tied for second in doubles (55) and third in walks (113). Arkansas finished the 2012 season with 46 victories, the most wins in a season since 1990 and the sixth-highest single-season total in school history. Arkansas won at least 40 games in a season for the 18th time in program history and for the fourth-consecutive year The Razorbacks finished the season ranked in the top six in all four of the major college baseball polls, including a final No. 3 national ranking in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches poll, the NCBWA poll and the Collegiate Baseball poll.

Butler coached junior third baseman Matt Reynolds to first-team All-SEC honors, third-team All-America accolades and second-team All-Region honors. Reynolds finished the 2012 season with a .323 batting average, seven homers, 45 RBI and 16 stolen bases. Senior infielder Bo Bigham and sophomore infielder Dominic Ficociello also garnered All-SEC honors in 2012. Bigham earned second-team recognition for his work at second base after hitting .306 in conference games, while Ficociello was named to the league's all-defensive team for the second straight year after committing just one error in league games for a .997 fielding percentage. Freshman infielder/outfielder Brian Anderson was selected to SEBaseball.com's All-SEC freshman team after he hit .346 with two homers and nine RBI in league play.

Five offensive players from Arkansas' 2012 team were selected in the 2012 MLB Draft. Reynolds was a second round choice of the New York Mets, Tim Carver was drafted by the Philadelphia Phillies in the 19th round and Sam Bates was taken in the 29th round by the Cleveland Indians. Derrick Bleeker and Jacob Morris were each drafted in the 37th round with Bleeker going to the Baltimore Orioles and Morris to the Cleveland Indians.

In 2011, Butler helped guide the Razorbacks to an SEC Western Division title, a 10th straight appearance in the NCAA Tournament and the 17th 40-win season in program history, including the third consecutive season of at least 40 wins. With power numbers down throughout college baseball, the Razorbacks found another way to produce runs, the stolen base. The Razorbacks led the SEC with 122 stolen bases, which were the sixth most in school history, and were only caught stealing 27 times, an 82 percent success rate.

Ficociello was a consensus freshman All-American after leading the Razorbacks with a .335 batting average and 50 RBI. Juniors James McCann and Jarrod McKinney also produced career-best numbers at the plate. McCann hit .306 with six homers and 38 RBI, while McKinney hit .301 with two homers and 20 RBI. Both were selected in the 2011 MLB Draft with McCann going in the second round to the Detroit Tigers, while McKinney was taken in the 31st round by the Houston Astros. Collin Kuhn, who hit .282 with seven homers and 41 RBI, and Kyle Robinson, who hit .286 with a team-high 10 homers and 49 RBI, were both drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the 2011 draft. Kuhn was a 17th round selection, while Robinson was taken in the 28th round.

The 2010 Arkansas offense was one of the most prolific in school history. The Razorbacks finished the season with a .306 team batting average, the first time since the 2005 season that the Razorbacks had closed a year with a better than .300 team batting average. Arkansas also set a school record with 92 home runs hit during the 2010 season. This high-powered offense helped the team to a 43-21 record and a trip to the NCAA Super Regionals for the second-straight year, marking the first consecutive trips to a Super Regional in program history.

A pair of Butler's pupils were honored with All-America honors following the 2010 season. Zack Cox set a new school record with a .429 batting average to go along with nine home runs and 48 RBI, while Brett Eibner hit .333 with a team-leading 22 homers and 71 RBI. Both players were early-round selections in the 2010 MLB Draft. Cox was the sixth first-round pick in school history after being taken by the St. Louis Cardinals with the 25th overall pick. Eibner was selected in the second round with the 54th overall pick by the Kansas City Royals. In addition, Andy Wilkins, who finished his career with a .307 batting average, 42 home runs and 165 RBI, was drafted by the Chicago White Sox in the fifth round of the 2010 draft.

In 2009, the Razorbacks used a combination of power and team speed to advance to the College World Series for the sixth time in program history. The hot-swinging Razorbacks blasted their way through the Norman Regional, on their way to producing 38 runs in the three-game round. Arkansas went on to add 16 runs to its postseason total in a sweep of Florida State in the Tallahassee Super Regional. The hitting barrage carried over into the Razorbacks' first game in Omaha with 10 runs against Cal State Fullerton.

In 2007, Arkansas hit .288 and finished second in the SEC with 75 home runs on its way to capturing the SEC Western Division title and advancing to the championship game of the SEC Tournament.

Butler has constructed 10 recruiting classes that ranked among the nation's top 10 including five in his seven years with the Razorbacks. The 2010 recruiting class was ranked eighth by Baseball America, while his 2008 recruiting class was ranked fourth by Collegiate Baseball. Both the 2005 and 2006 classes were ranked 10th by Baseball America. In 2005, the publication tabbed Arkansas' recruiting class as the nation's top junior college collection of players and some of those players have already made their mark in professional baseball as right-handed pitchers Jess Todd and Duke Welker were both drafted in the second round of the 2007 MLB Draft. Todd ascended quickly through the St. Louis Cardinals' organization and was called up to the big leagues in June 2009.

On the field, Butler has also made a huge impact with the Razorbacks as his teams have produced five of the top 10 home run hitting clubs in program history. In Butler's first season the Razorbacks belted 65 home runs which ranked sixth all-time. Since then, the 2007 team blasted 75 home runs in 64 games, the 2008 team hit 77 in 58 contests, the 2009 team hit 80 in 65 games, while the 2010 team belted 92 homers in 64 games, an average of 1.44 homers per game.

While his influence on the Razorbacks as a whole has been profound, it's the work he has accomplished with several individuals that paints a much brighter picture. Danny Hamblin was a terror at the plate during the 2006 and 2007 seasons as he produced some of the biggest single-season home run totals ever. Hamblin connected for 17 home runs as a junior after hitting just 17 his first two seasons at Arkansas. Despite getting drafted by the Oakland A's, Hamblin returned to Arkansas for his senior season and slammed another 22 home runs, the second-highest single-season total in school history. His 57 career home runs are the most by any individual in Razorback history.

Another Butler disciple was Logan Forsythe who went from a .189 hitter as a freshman to .347 as a sophomore and .351 as a junior. Forsythe flourished with Butler's guidance and earned first-team All-SEC honors after his junior season and was drafted in the first round of the MLB Draft by the San Diego Padres thanks to his skills at the plate and defensive prowess. Forsythe made his Major League debut in 2011 and has played in 153 games with the Padres over the last two seasons.

During Butler's 20-year career as a NCAA Division I assistant or head coach, he has helped his teams to five College World Series appearances, 16 NCAA regionals, four NCAA super regionals, six conference tournament championships and his teams have been ranked No. 1 four times in his career. In addition, Butler has coached 31 All-Americans, 124 players drafted in the MLB Draft and 20 Major League players.

One of the most experienced and talented assistant coaches in college baseball, Butler came to Fayetteville after two assistant coaching stints (eight total years) at the University of Alabama and three years as the head coach at his alma mater, McNeese State.

In 2001, Butler took over as head coach at McNeese State in his hometown of Lake Charles, La., where he compiled a 90-83 (.520) overall record in three seasons. In his last season at McNeese, he guided the Cowboys to the 2003 Southland Conference Tournament championship, their first in 10 years.

The win at the conference tournament secured just the fourth NCAA Regional bid in McNeese State's history and the Cowboys were sent to the Houston Regional at Rice's Reckling Park. Butler's team gave eventual national champion Rice all they could handle before falling to the Owls, 3-2, in 10 innings. Ole Miss eliminated the Cowboys from the 64-team field the following day.

Prior to assuming the head coaching duties at McNeese State, Butler served as the hitting instructor and outfielders coach during his first stint with the Crimson Tide from 1995-2000. He helped guide Alabama to six NCAA Regional appearances as well as three trips to the College World Series in 1996, 1997 and 1999. The Tide advanced to the SEC Tournament in all six of those seasons, claiming the SEC Tournament title in 1995, 1996, 1997 and 1999.

Butler also earned his reputation as one of the country's top recruiters during those first six years at Alabama. He helped the Crimson Tide land some of the nation's top talent as Alabama recorded three-consecutive top 10 recruiting classes. The Tide's 1999 freshman class was ranked as the fourth-best in the country and still ranks as the highest ranked class in school history.

Under Butler's leadership, the Crimson Tide became one of the most feared offensive clubs in America. Alabama's 1997 team led the NCAA in four offensive categories, including runs scored (679), total hits (860) and total bases (1,571) while finishing second in home runs (160). In addition, the Crimson Tide won the NCAA statistical championship for highest slugging percentage (.621), eclipsing the previous school record (.521 in 1983) by 100 points. The 1997 team also set a NCAA record with 13 home runs in a single game.

Butler returned to Alabama as an assistant baseball coach on June 26, 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons on the Tide staff as the recruiting coordinator, hitting instructor and infield coach, while also coaching first base.

He continued to showcase his ability to sign some of the top recruiting classes in the country upon his return to the Alabama bench. Alabama's 2005 freshman class was rated 10th in the fall of 2004 in Baseball America's Dandy Dozen College recruiting classes.

Before joining Alabama for the first time, Butler served as an assistant coach at McNeese State in 1993 and 1994. He was an assistant coach at Blinn Junior College in Brenham, Texas, in 1992, where he helped the Buccaneers advance to the NJCAA World Series.

Butler's coaching career began as a student-assistant coach at McNeese State, where he earned his bachelor's degree in liberal studies in 1991.

Butler spent two summers coaching in the Alaska Baseball League. His first stint in Alaska was as an assistant coaching job in 1991 with the Kenai Peninsula Oilers, helping them to the NBC World Series. He then coached for the Anchorage Glacier Pilots in 1992.

Butler played his college ball at McNeese State and Oklahoma. A team captain for the Sooners in 1988, Butler still holds the OU single-season record for stolen bases with 46 steals in 1988, including 26 consecutive successful stolen base attempts. Butler was a third-team All-American and earned All-Big Eight Conference honors in 1988. Butler also played for the Wareham Gatemen in the Cape Cod League.

Butler was born on July 23, 1966, in Alexandria, La., and is married to the former Melissa Borrel. The couple has two daughters, Caitlyn (15) and Kendyll (10).

Pitching Coach
17th Season - Southeast Missouri State, 1981

Beginning his 17th overall season with the Razorbacks, Dave Jorn has made a lasting and profound impression on the baseball program. In his second stint with Arkansas, Jorn is beginning his 11th season as the pitching coach with head coach Dave Van Horn.

Jorn's unmistakable impact on the Razorback baseball program can not only be seen on the pitcher's mound but in the locker room and on the draft boards of every Major League Baseball team.

During two assistant coaching stints in Fayetteville, Jorn has been a part of 673 wins, five trips to the College World Series and 15 NCAA Tournament berths. In addition, the Razorbacks have enjoyed 11 40-win seasons, two 50-win campaigns and his pitchers have tossed five no-hit games.

Since returning to Arkansas in 2003, Jorn has had six pitching staffs finish the season with an ERA of under 4.00, including in each of the last three seasons. Over the last two seasons, his pitching staffs have accounted for the second- and ninth-lowest team ERAs in program history. The 2012 squad had a team ERA of 2.83, the second-best in school history, while the 2011 pitching staff finished the season with a 3.20 team ERA, the ninth-best in school annals.

Jorn returned to Arkansas in 2003 after a 14-year career in Major League Baseball as a coach for the New York Mets, New York Yankees and Arizona Diamondbacks. Prior to working in the pros, he spent six years with the Razorbacks under legendary Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn. In his second tour of duty with the Razorbacks, he has revived Arkansas' pitching fortunes once again.

In 2012, the Razorback pitching staff was one of the best in program history. Arkansas finished the season with a team ERA of 2.83, the second-lowest single-season ERA in school history. The Razorbacks ranked second in the Southeastern Conference and fifth in the country in team ERA. Jorn's pitching staff was even better in the NCAA Tournament. In 10 NCAA Tournament games, Arkansas' pitching staff had a 1.92 ERA, including a team ERA of 1.80 in four College World Series games. Arkansas ranked fourth nationally in hits allowed per nine innings, giving up just 7.53 hits per nine innings. The Razorbacks finished the season with 10 shutouts, which ranked as the second-highest single-season total in school history.

Individually, 10 members of the 2012 pitching staff finished the season with an ERA under 3.20 (minimum 10 appearances). DJ Baxendale and Ryne Stanek each earned All-SEC honors from SEBaseball.com. Stanek also earned honorable mention All-America honors from CollegeBaseballInsider.com. Baxendale finished the season with an 8-5 record and a 3.11 ERA, while Stanek was 8-4 with a 2.82 ERA. Barrett Astin and Colby Suggs headlined a strong Arkansas bullpen. Astin finished the season with 11 saves, which ranked tied for the third-highest single-season total in school history, and a 1.99 ERA. Suggs compiled a 7-1 record with a 1.38 ERA. Three members of the Razorback pitching staff were drafted in the 2012 MLB Draft. Nolan Sanburn was selected by the Oakland Athletics in the second round, Baxendale was a 10th round pick of the Minnesota Twins and Randall Fant was drafted in the 29th round by the Cleveland Indians.

Jorn's pitching staff in 2011 ranked among the best in the SEC and nationally. The Razorback pitching staff finished the season with a team ERA of 3.20, ranking fourth in the conference and 27th nationally. Arkansas' team ERA was the ninth-best in program history and the best since 1982 when Arkansas pitchers posted a 3.00 ERA. The Razorback pitching staff combined to allow just 7.86 hits per nine innings, which ranked them 14th in the country. The Razorback bullpen was particularly strong in 2011, setting a new single-season school record with 20 saves and posting a 20-8 record with a 2.51 ERA.

Three of Jorn's pupils earned conference and national recognition following the 2011 season. Baxendale was named second-team All-SEC and earned All-Region honors after finishing his junior season with a 10-2 record, three saves and a 1.58 ERA.

Baxendale was the first Razorback pitcher to record double-digit wins in a season since Nick Schmidt in 2007 and posted the fifth-lowest ERA in program history. Astin and Sanburn each earned freshman All-America honors following the season. Astin appeared in a team-high 27 games and had a 5-2 record with three saves and 2.72 ERA. Sanburn led Arkansas with eight saves and compiled a 2-4 record with a 3.62 ERA.

In 2010, the Razorback rotation finished the year with a 3.93 ERA, finishing third in the conference and posting the first sub-4.00 ERA since the 2007 season. Arkansas pitchers also posted the second-best strikeout to walk ratio in school history at 2.92, fanning 551 batters and issuing just 189 bases on balls.

The ace of the Razorback pitching staff in 2010 was Drew Smyly. The southpaw finished the year with a 9-1 record and a 2.80 ERA. He was recognized for his stellar season by earning All-SEC honors. Smyly, who made his Major League debut in 2012 with the Detroit Tigers, was drafted in the second round of the 2010 MLB Draft by the Tigers with the 68th overall pick.

Jorn's 2007 starting rotation was possibly the best three-man rotation in college baseball and one of the best in school history. Nick Schmidt, who garnered All-America honors for the second-consecutive season, anchored a rotation that included junior college transfers Jess Todd and Duke Welker. The trio combined for 27 wins, 315 innings, a .217 opponent batting average and 319 strikeouts.

Under Jorn's guidance, Schmidt finished his three-year Razorback career as one of the most-decorated players to ever don an Arkansas uniform. His 11-3 record and career-low 2.69 ERA in 2007 cumulated a career that produced a 28-8 record, 2.83 ERA and a school record 345 strikeouts. Schmidt also earned SEC Pitcher of the Year honors in 2006.

Schmidt was drafted in the first round of the 2007 Major League Baseball Draft by the San Diego Padres with the 23rd overall selection. He became the first Razorback to be drafted in the first round since 1999 and just the fourth first-rounder in school history.

Jorn's trio of starting pitchers were all selected by the 82nd overall pick in the second round of the 2007 MLB Draft. Welker went with the 68th pick to the Pittsburgh Pirates while Todd was taken No. 82 by the St. Louis Cardinals. Both Schmidt and Todd were picked as first-team All-SEC selections by league coaches. Todd also earned second-team All-America honors with a 9-3 record, two saves, two complete games and 128 strikeouts, which tied for the third-most in a single season in school history. During the summer of 2009, Todd was called up by the St. Louis Cardinals to join the big-league team.

The Razorbacks' 2007 pitchers recorded a school-record 565 strikeouts in 569 innings of work for 8.9 strikeouts per nine innings that ranked fifth nationally. The staff also garnered a 2.58 strikeout-to-walk ratio and held opponents to a .249 batting average. The 2006 staff, led by Schmidt, posted a team ERA of 3.64, the lowest in 15 years.

In 2006, Schmidt finished 9-3 with 145 strikeouts and was named the league's top pitcher by the coaches. His 145 strikeouts were also the second-most in a single season in Arkansas history. Jorn also molded lefty Devin Collis into one of the league's top closers, finishing with nine saves. Shaun Seibert also came into his own under Jorn's guidance, posting a 2.79 ERA that ranked second in the SEC.

In 2005, Arkansas compiled a 4.05 ERA and rode the strong arms of Charley Boyce and freshman All-American Schmidt to 39 wins and a NCAA Regional berth. Seibert and Schmidt were both named to the Collegiate Baseball Freshman All-America team for their standout efforts.

In 2004, the Razorbacks claimed a share of the SEC overall title and advanced to the College World Series for the first time in 15 seasons. Under Jorn's guidance, Razorback hurlers posted the lowest team ERA since 1991 with a 3.87 mark. Jorn helped Boyce post a 10-3 record and a 3.20 ERA in 2004, while part-time starter Jay Sawatski also posted a 10-3 record with a 3.38 ERA. The Razorbacks' bullpen was equally effective under Jorn's instruction in 2004 as the relievers recorded a 3.72 ERA with a 25-11 record and 16 saves.

Jorn first served as Arkansas' pitching coach from 1983-88. During Jorn's time on DeBriyn's staff, Arkansas posted a record of 268-108 (.713), competed in five NCAA Regionals and earned trips to the 1985 and the 1987 College World Series. Six different Razorback pitchers earned All-Southwest Conference honors during that span including Kevin Campbell ('84), Tim Deitz ('85), Bobby Edwards ('87, '88), Fred Farwell ('85), Steve Parker ('86) and Tim Peters ('87).

Van Horn and Jorn coached together on the UA staff from 1985-88. Van Horn was a graduate assistant while Jorn was in the midst of his first stint as UA's pitching coach.

Jorn left the Razorback program in January of 1989 to work in player development in the New York Yankees' minor league system. He was the pitching coach at Class A Prince William, Va., in the Carolina League in 1989, helping the Cannons to a league title. Jorn then served in the same position in the Class A South Atlantic League in Greensboro, N.C., in 1990. He spent two years (1991-92) as the pitching coach at the Yankees' Class AA affiliate in Albany, N.Y., helping them to a league championship in 1991.

He joined the New York Mets' organization in 1993 and worked with their Class A South Atlantic League affiliate in Columbia, S.C., in 1993-94. Jorn transferred to Kingsport, Tenn., to serve as pitching coach for the Mets in the Class A rookie league from 1995-96, winning a league title in 1996. He then returned to Columbia, S.C., for the 1997 season.

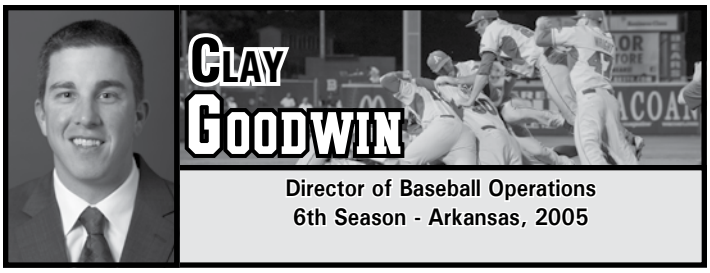
In 1998, he was hired by the Arizona Diamondbacks and worked as the pitching coach in Lethbridge, Ontario, Canada, in the organization's short season Class A league club in the Pioneer League.

Jorn spent the next two seasons (1999-2000) with the Diamondbacks' Class A Midwest League affiliate in South Bend, Ind. He served as the pitching coach in 1999 before being elevated to the role of manager in 2000.

Jorn rejoined the Yankees' organization in 2001 as a scout covering the Midwest. He was responsible for scouting in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota and South Dakota. Following the 2001 draft, he managed the Yankees' Class A short season team playing in the New York-Penn League in Staten Island, N.Y.

Prior to his initial tenure at Arkansas, he was the pitching coach at Lurleen B. Wallace (Ala.) Junior College for one season.

Jorn and Melinda Gatling were married in April 2007. They have two daughters, Molly Kuhl (27), who was married to Kaleb Kuhl in December 2009, and Maggie Gatling (20). Jorn also has a daughter, Christina, and three grandchildren Kellen (10), Alexis (10) and Bryant (five months).



Director of Baseball Operations
6th Season - Arkansas, 2005

Once the foundation of a stellar Razorback infield, Clay Goodwin is now the cornerstone of an even better Razorback coaching staff as he starts his sixth season with the Arkansas coaching staff as its Director of Baseball Operations.

In his capacity as the Director of Operations, Goodwin coordinates many of the behind-the-scenes aspects of the Razorback baseball program as he works in conjunction with the Arkansas coaching staff. Some of his duties include acting as an on-campus recruiting official, coordinating all official and unofficial visits to Arkansas' campus, assisting with team travel and ordering inventory of all equipment needs.

Prior to his appointment to Director of Operations, Goodwin spent the 2006 season as the Razorbacks' fifth-year student assistant coach. He assisted the UA coaching staff with practices, day-to-day administrative duties and on game days. He helped hitting coach Todd Butler with hitting instruction while assisting with the Razorbacks' infield. He then served as a team manager for Arkansas during the 2007 season.

Goodwin was an outstanding player for the Razorbacks over four seasons and because of that his name is littered throughout the Arkansas record book. An excellent defensive third baseman, he was also known to have an effective bat as he finished his career with a .297 average, 49 doubles, 12 home runs and 127 RBI. At the conclusion of his four years, he ranked eighth in career at bats (750), tied for ninth in career hits (223) and tied for fifth in career singles (157). Goodwin appeared in 202 games as a Razorback, making 193 starts.

He hit a team-best .332 as a sophomore and followed that with a team-leading .319 average as a junior. His run production spiked as a senior with a career-best five home runs, 17 doubles and 42 RBI. He also finished his career with a .934 fielding percentage at third base and 408 assists.

Goodwin was born on Oct. 1, 1981, and graduated from the University of Arkansas in May of 2005 with a degree in kinesiology. He completed his master's degree in the fall of 2006 at the University of Arkansas in workforce development. Goodwin is married to the former Jill Johnson. The couple has one daughter, Caroline (1).

Volunteer Assistant Coach
3rd Season - Arkansas, 2011

Brian Walker is in his third season on the Razorback coaching staff and in his second year as the team's volunteer assistant coach. Walker works primarily with the Razorback catchers.

Walker continued his work in developing Razorback catchers during the 2012 season. Jake Wise was one of the best defensive catchers in the country, not committing an error in 438 chances in 2012. Wise was also effective in slowing down the opposition's running game as he threw out 17 would-be base stealers.

In his first season on the Arkansas coaching staff, Walker mentored James McCann, one of the top catchers in collegiate baseball. McCann, who was named a semifinalist for the Johnny Bench Award, enjoyed his best season at the plate, finishing the year with a .306 batting average with six homers and 38 RBI. Defensively, McCann had a .992 fielding percentage, committing just four errors, while throwing out 20 would-be base stealers. McCann was a second round draft pick of the Detroit Tigers in the 2011 MLB Draft.

Walker joined the Arkansas coaching staff after spending four years in the Anaheim Angels minor league system. Walker closed the 2010 season with the Angels' triple-A squad, Salt Lake City. In six games with Salt Lake City, he hit .300 with six RBI.

A three-year letterwinner at Arkansas, Walker played in 164 games, including 145 starts, and hit .260 with 26 home runs and 98 RBI. Walker was stellar in the field for the Razorbacks, committing just five errors over his three-year career for a .996 fielding percentage. He was drafted in the 29th round of the 2007 MLB Draft by the Anaheim Angels.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Walker graduated from the University of Arkansas with a degree in kinesiology. Walker and his wife, McKenzi, have two children, Claire (4) and Joseph (4).

Student Assistant Coach
1st Season

Jacob Julius is in his first season on the Razorback coaching staff as a student assistant coach. Julius works primarily with the Arkansas outfielders.

Julius returns to Arkansas after playing five seasons in the Baltimore Orioles organization. Julius most recently played in 2011, where he split time between the single-A, high-A and triple-A levels. He most recently played for the Orioles' triple-A team in Norfolk, Va.

Julius played one season at Arkansas as he was a member of the 2007 team. Julius played in 27 games, including 20 starts, in the 2007 season and hit .309 with five homers and 21 RBI. He had an OPS of 1.054, posting a slugging percentage of .588 and an on-base percentage of .466. Following the 2007 season, Julius was drafted in the 33rd round of the 2007 MLB Draft by the Baltimore Orioles.

A native of New Albany, Ind., Julius is pursuing a degree in general business.

Coach Van Horn on Anderson

"Brian got some quality playing time last year and really helped us down the stretch. We feel like that he's a little bigger and stronger. He's gained some valuable experience. Brian has the chance to be our starting third baseman. He also plays short and can play outfield. We'd like Brian to be a guy that can be more of a run producer this year."

Coach Van Horn on Daniel

"Trent put together a very good finish to the season last year. He really helped us down the stretch. He's come back this fall and picked up right where he left off. He's throwing more strikes than ever. He's another player that can fill several roles for us. He can be a spot reliever out of the bullpen to come in and get lefties. He could be a long reliever. I also see Trent starting some ball games for us this year."

Coach Van Horn on Ficociello

"Dominic had a tremendous freshman season. His sophomore season was a little more up and down, but he's played tremendous defense in his two seasons here. We're hoping he'll have a breakout year offensively. We have moved him to the middle infield this season. It looks like he'll be our starting second baseman. He worked hard all fall at that position. I think he could develop and play a long time at that position."

Coach Van Horn on Fisher

"Eric played some as a true freshman at first base. With having four returning starters on the infield last season, we thought it was best to redshirt him last season. He continued to work hard and he's gotten bigger and stronger. He played in the California Collegiate League last summer and made the league's all-star game. He came in this fall and fielded everything hit at him. He also put together a very good offensive fall, hitting well over .300. We think Eric is a player that can help us out by driving in some runs."

2012 (Sophomore)

Fisher redshirted during the 2012 season.

2011 (Freshman)

Played in 18 games, including 10 starts, and hit .143 with five RBI ... Named to the SEC First-Year Academic Honor Roll ... Made collegiate debut vs. Delaware State (2.18-2.20), starting the final two games of the series ... Had first hit with an RBI and a run scored in middle game of the series vs. the Hornets ... Started second game of series vs. Utah (2.26), scoring a run and going 1-for-3 ... Came off the bench in series finale vs. Wisconsin-Milwaukee (3.6), going 1-for-1 with a RBI and a run scored ... Had just one official at bat in series at San Diego State (3.10-3.13), but drove in two RBI on a pair of sacrifice flies ... Started in the series finale at Alabama (4.3) and went 1-for-4 with a RBI single ... Earned a midweek start at Missouri State (4.12) and had a base hit.

Summer Baseball

2012: Played for the Conejo Oaks of the California Collegiate League ... Finished the summer with a .281 batting average with a pair of homers and 29 RBI ... Tied for second on the team with nine doubles and added two triples ... Named a top performer in the California Collegiate League by Perfect Game ... Coach Van Horn on Morris

"Jacob got off to a pretty good start last year. He helped us win a lot of ballgames. He's one of the best centerfielders I've ever coached. He broke his finger late in the season and didn't get to be with us down the stretch. With the fall that he had offensively and defensively, he's going to be better than ever. I'm looking for a big season from him. He could really help push us over the top."

Coach Van Horn on Vinson

"Matt really helped us down the stretch last year in center field after (Jacob) Morris was injured. I think it'll be a battle between Matt and Jacob for the center field job. If they're both in the lineup, then Vinson will probably play some right field. Matt's a very good defender with a very good arm. If he swings the bat, he's going to be in the lineup every day."

2012 (Junior)

Played in 49 games, including 36 starts, and hit .217 with 13 RBI ... Finished third on the team with 24 walks ... Coach Van Horn on Wright

"Tyler's really made a jump for us. He's turned the corner mentally. He was sparingly used last year, but I think his role can really develop after seeing how he pitched this fall. He had a good summer pitching in the Alaska Baseball League. He came back this fall and threw a lot of strikes. His breaking ball is better and he has a good changeup. I think he'll have a much bigger role than he had as a junior."

2012 (Junior)

BAUM STADIUM

When discussing the best college baseball facilities in the country, Baum Stadium is consistently among one of the first places mentioned. With room for more than 10,000 spectators, an impeccable playing surface and amenities that rival most minor league ballparks, it is the crown jewel of the collegiate ranks. Of course the physical properties of Baum Stadium are only a portion of the baseball experience with the remainder in the form of fans that flock to the corner of Razorback Road and 15th Street to watch their Razorbacks take on all comers.

Officially named Baum Stadium at George Cole Field at its dedication on May 3, 1996, the facility derives its name from primary backers as well as from the history of Razorback baseball. Arkansas' facility prior to Baum Stadium was George Cole Field, and the new park preserved the tradition with its current name.

In 1998, Baum Stadium received a special honor when it was named the nation's number one facility in Baseball America's poll of best college facilities. Five years later it took second in the same poll, cementing its legacy as one of the best facilities in the nation. Since its construction, Arkansas officials have received numerous solicitations by coaches and administrators from across the country for blueprints and tours of the Razorbacks' home ballpark in an attempt to capture some of its charm. Even though Baum Stadium has been replicated to some degree, no other place in the country has the atmosphere that Baum Stadium brings to college baseball which is why it has been the host to five NCAA Regionals and a NCAA Super Regional.

Baum Stadium was one of the nation's best facilities when it was constructed, but since then, it has undergone three renovations making it the envy of visiting teams. The first upgrade came prior to the 2003 season when the hitting and pitching cages were enclosed to ensure a place for Razorback players to practice year round. A total of 2,600 chair back seats were added to the park, 1,300 of which reside on each foul line.

Baum Stadium's second renovation came a year later as 12 luxury boxes, coaches' offices, a new scoreboard, and natural grass completely changed the feel of the park. A state-of-the-art scoreboard added full video, complete with a message center, and an analog clock was added to the right-center field gap, which stands 45-feet-high by 76-feet-wide. The original turf field of Baum Stadium's construction was torn out and rye grass was grown for the 2004 campaign, but replaced by a hybrid Bermuda in 2005. Part of the upgrades were made possible by contributions from the Willard and Pat Walker Charitable Foundation, Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the Pagnozzi Charities, John Tyson and Stan Ley.

The most recent major renovation to Baum Stadium came prior to the 2007 season as 20 luxury boxes were built, 1,000 chair back seats were added, restrooms constructed and the Hog Pen and picnic area expanded. A new ticket office, field lights and wall pads were added as well. The final set of upgrades to the park brought Baum Stadium's capacity to 10,737 seats with 8,237 of those coming from chair backs and 34 luxury boxes.

In the fall of 2011, future renovations to Baum Stadium were announced that will ensure that the stadium remains among the best in college baseball. Included in that is a baseball/track & field training facility, which was approved by the UA Board of Trustees in the fall of 2012. The new training facility will include a weight room, indoor batting cages and an indoor practice field. Future plans also call for luxury suites in left field and right field, a concourse that goes around the entire stadium, including a new center field entrance to the stadium and a new LED ribbon board.

The combination of the upgrades prior to the 2007 season and a top 10 baseball team produced then-record attendance numbers as Arkansas smashed its school record for the fourth straight year. The Razorbacks became the first team in NCAA history to average more than 8,000 tickets sold per game (8,069) as its attendance over 33 home games was 266,270. Arkansas also set a then-school record for actual attendance with 198,218 (6,007 per game) passing through the gates.

In 2007, Razorback fans helped set the school and then-Southeastern Conference three-game series attendance record in the May 4-6 weekend series against LSU, with 30,564 tickets sold.

The superior attendance figures drawn to Baum Stadium allowed Fayetteville to host its third NCAA Regional in four years in 2007 and its fourth since 1999. Razorback fan support did not flounder as the regional was the best attended of all 16 sites, averaging 6,452 fans over its six games.

In April 2009, Baum Stadium played host to its first-ever No. 1 vs. No. 1 battle when the Razorbacks took on Arizona State. In game two of the midweek series, 11,014 fans were in attendance while 11,434 tickets were sold. Both numbers were then-facility records, topping the previous mark of 10,581 fans to see Arkansas defeat LSU in 2007.

The two-game series against the Sun Devils brought 17,300 fans through the turnstiles, a Razorback midweek record, and the 19,776 tickets sold were also a midweek series highmark.

Arkansas set a new attendance standard at Baum Stadium during the 2010 season as a record 292,734 tickets were sold to see the Razorbacks. Arkansas finished second in the country in both total attendance and average attendance (7,704). In part because of the great fan support, Arkansas was selected as an NCAA Regional host for the fifth time in program history. The regional drew more than 40,000 fans and attendance averaged 5,276 fans over the eight games.

Razorback fans continued to pack Baum Stadium in 2011 as Arkansas had six of the 20 largest crowds in school history in terms of tickets sold. The UA set a new single-game attendance record on April 9, 2011, when 11,103 fans crammed into Baum Stadium to see the Razorbacks defeat LSU 4-3 on James McCann's walk-off three-run homer in the bottom of the ninth.

The 2012 season saw Arkansas play a school-record 36 regular season home games. The Razorbacks finished second in the country in average attendance and third in total attendance. A total of 260,468 tickets were sold over the 33 home dates, an average of 7,892 tickets sold per game. Arkansas sold more than 7,000 tickets for 23 of the team's 36 home games.

In 2004, Baum Stadium served as host to its second NCAA Regional and first NCAA Super Regional, drawing the largest total attendance in the nation for both events. The series-clinching win over Florida State drew 10,027 fans to Baum Stadium, eclipsing the previous night's record of 9,338, set less than 24 hours earlier. In all, a combined 58,138 attended the NCAA Regional and Super Regional during the 2004 season.

Arkansas' 2004 attendance numbers were no fluke as fans continued to pour into the ballpark. The 2005 and 2006 crowds continued to set records for both paid and actual attendance. While the NCAA and SEC recognize tickets sold as their method of ranking schools, Arkansas keeps both actual patrons as well as paid attendance figures and have seen steady increases in both areas.

In an informal study by the Baton Rouge (La.) Advocate, Arkansas led the nation in actual attendance between 2004 and 2007 and was edged by LSU in 2008 by 20 fans as patrons returned to Baton Rouge's Alex Box Stadium in its final season.

Baum Stadium is the culmination of a vision that was possible only through the dedication of former Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn, former UA Athletics Director Frank Broyles, and the contributions of Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families.

While the efforts of DeBriyn and Broyles have been instrumental in maintaining a state-of-the-art home for UA baseball since the original George Cole Field opened in 1975, it was the generosity of the Baums and Walkers that allowed Arkansas to abandon plans to renovate its former facility and replace it with a new standard in college baseball venues.

The support of the George Cole family has been an integral part of the program's growth since the former Razorback athlete, coach and athletics director donned the cardinal and white many years ago.

"Without the support of the Charlie Baum, Willard Walker and George Cole families, this wouldn't have been possible," DeBriyn said when Baum Stadium opened. "It's an incredible facility and there is not one like it anywhere in the country. There is no way to describe the excitement our players and coaches have when they take the field."

Representatives of all three families attended the groundbreaking ceremony on Oct. 12, 1994. Eighteen months later, Arkansas' Matt Carnes delivered Baum Stadium's first pitch to Auburn's Russell Whittenburg, completing the dream. The Razorbacks defeated the Auburn Tigers 9-2 in the stadium's inaugural contest.

TOP MOMENTS IN BAUM STADIUM HISTORY

The 2011 season marked the 15th anniversary of the opening of Baum Stadium. To celebrate the 15th anniversary of one of the best stadiums in college baseball, Razorback fans voted for the top 15 moments in Baum Stadium history. More than 4,000 votes were cast in the month of April online at ArkansasRazorbacks.com. The top 15 moments were revealed during home games in May culminating with the No. 1 moment in the regular season finale against Ole Miss. Baum Stadium opened for play on April 13, 1996 and has hosted more than 500 games in its first 16 years. The complete list of the top 15 moments in Baum Stadium history is below.

1. 2004 - Brady Toops hits a grand slam in the top of the ninth inning to beat Wichita State in the NCAA Fayetteville Regional. Arkansas went on to win the regional and advance to the College World Series.

2. 2004 - Arkansas sweeps Florida State in its first NCAA Super Regional to earn a trip to College World Series.

3. 2011 - James McCann hits a three-run walk-off home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to lead Arkansas to a 4-3 win over LSU in front of a record crowd of 11,462 fans and a national television audience on ESPNU.

4. 2008 - Pinch hitter Jacob House hits a walk-off grand slam in the bottom of the ninth inning to give Arkansas a 12-11 win over No. 13 South Carolina at Baum Stadium. The Razorbacks went on to sweep the Gamecocks in the weekend series.

5. The late Larry Shank, Baum Stadium public address announcer, singing the national anthem on Sundays and "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" during the seventh-inning stretch.

6. 2010 - Down to his last strike, Collin Kuhn hits a ninth-inning grand slam to lead Arkansas to a 17-16 comeback win over Kentucky on Easter Sunday.

7. 2009 - In a regular-season battle of No. 1 teams, Arkansas wins two mid-week games against Arizona State in front of record-breaking crowds at Baum Stadium.

8. 2001 - Arkansas sweeps No. 1 LSU in a three-game series at Baum Stadium.

9. 1998 - Arkansas rallies from an 11-run deficit in its final at-bat for an improbable win over South Carolina during a snow storm at Baum Stadium.

10. 2002 - Arkansas defeats South Carolina 8-7 in the longest game in Baum Stadium history (15 innings).

11. 2009 - Arkansas pitchers strike out a school-record 18 Missouri State batters.

12. 2010 - Arkansas hits a school record nine home runs in an NCAA Fayetteville Regional win over Grambling State.

13. 2010 - Arkansas bats around twice in the first inning, scoring a school-record 14 runs (in one inning) on its way to a 32-8 win over Saint Louis.

14. 1999 - Arkansas hosts its first NCAA Regional at Baum Stadium, defeating Delaware in the opening round.

15. 1998 - Arkansas defeats Eastern Illinois, 16-0, to give Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career win.

GEORGE COLE FIELD

Named for the late Razorback shortstop and athletics director, George Cole Field served as Arkansas' home field from 1975 until 1996.

With a capacity of 3,000, George Cole Field was located just north of John McDonnell Field.

When it opened in 1975, George Cole Field enabled the Razorbacks to leave the field at the Washington County Fairgrounds and move into an on-campus facility for the first time.

Setting the trend for Arkansas having the finest college baseball park in the nation, George Cole Field was one of the few with artificial turf.

Donations from former Razorbacks Tim Lollar, Johnny Ray and Kevin McReynolds and their agent, Tom Selakovich, provided for the installation of lights at George Cole Field in 1985. On March 22 of that season, the Hogs defeated Southwest Conference rival Texas 5-4 in the first night baseball game on the Arkansas campus. Later that season, George Cole Field played host to the Southwest Conference Tournament for the first time. Arkansas defeated Texas 10-6 in the championship game to win its first - and still only - conference tournament title. The SWC tourney came to Fayetteville again in 1988.

When the Razorbacks entered the Southeastern Conference in 1992, UA officials recognized the need to improve the school's baseball facility. While plans originally called for the improvement of George Cole Field, generous donations from the Willard and Pat Walker and Charlie Baum families, along with former Razorback Tom Pagnozzi, enabled the Razorbacks to scrap the renovation plans and start from scratch with an entirely new state-of-the-art facility.

During its 21 seasons, George Cole Field was home to a number of future major-leaguers, including Pagnozzi, Ray, McReynolds, Lollar, Les Lancaster and Jeff King.

Although the original George Cole Field played host to its last game on March 31, 1995, as South Carolina defeated Arkansas 13-2, the spirit endures in the official name of the Razorbacks' current facility: Baum Stadium at George Cole Field.

A native of Bauxite, Ark., Cole served as athletics director from July 1, 1970, until his retirement on July 1, 1973. A former All-SWC quarterback for the Razorbacks, Cole scored a school-record 85 points as a senior in 1927. He began his administrative career at UA as a football line coach in 1936 and became an assistant athletics director under the legendary John Barnhill in 1957.

2012 REVIEW

ARKANSAS FINISHES THIRD IN COLLEGE WORLD SERIES

For the seventh time in program history, the Arkansas baseball team advanced to the College World Series in 2012. The Razorbacks advanced to the semifinals of the CWS, tying the second-best finish in program history. Arkansas won its first two games of the College World Series for the first time since 1979, defeating Kent State 8-1 in the opener and snapping South Carolina's 22-game postseason win streak with a 2-1 win in game two. The appearance in the CWS capped an impressive postseason run for the Razorbacks, which included a perfect 3-0 record in the Houston Regional, hosted by No. 8 Rice, and taking two of three games from No. 4 national seed Baylor in the Waco Super Regional.

Joe Serrano led the Arkansas offense in the NCAA Tournament, hitting .444 (12-for-27) with two RBI and three runs scored. Jake Wise homered and drove in six runs in the 10 NCAA Tournament contests, while Dominic Ficociello and Matt Reynolds each had four RBI.

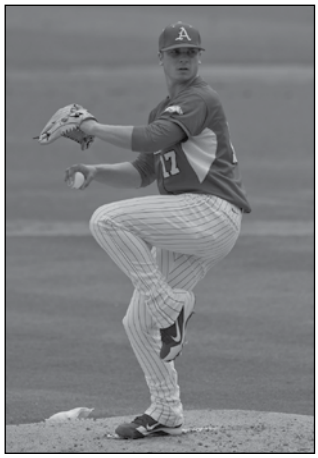
Joe Serrano hit a team-best .444 for the Razorbacks in the NCAA Tournament, including a .385 batting average in the College World Series.

On the mound, Brandon Moore appeared in a team-high six games in the NCAA Tournament and had a 1-0 record with one save and a 1.59 ERA. Ryne Stanek was 2-0 with a 1.59 ERA in three starts, while DJ Baxendale went 1-1 with a 3.48 ERA in four starts. Randall Fant started three games and was 0-1 with a 1.86 ERA. Barrett Astin picked up a pair of saves in four scoreless outings in the NCAA Tournament, while Nolan Sanburn was 1-0 and did not allow a run in three appearances. Trent Daniel pitched in five games and went 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA, while Colby Suggs compiled a 1-1 record with a 1.80 ERA.

Arkansas finished the 2012 season with a 46-22 record. The 46 wins were the most for the Razorbacks under head coach Dave Van Horn and the most in a season since the 1990 team won 47 games. Overall, the 46 wins were the sixth-highest single-season total in school history.

PITCHING STAFF RANKS AMONG BEST IN SCHOOL HISTORY

The 2012 Arkansas pitching staff will go down as one of the best in program history. Razorback pitching combined for a 2.83 team ERA in 2012, the second-lowest single-season ERA in program history. Arkansas finished second in the SEC and fifth nationally in team ERA. As dominant as the Razorback pitching staff was during the regular season, the staff was even better in the NCAA Tournament. In 10 NCAA Tournament games, Arkansas' pitching staff had a team ERA of 1.92. In the College World Series, the Razorbacks compiled a team ERA of 1.80. Arkansas ranked fourth nationally in hits allowed per nine innings, allowing just 7.53 hits per nine innings. The Razorbacks posted 10 shutouts last season, which also ranked as the second-highest total in a season.



Barrett Astin appeared in a team-high 32 games in 2012 and went 3-5 with a team-high 11 saves and a 1.99 ERA.

IN THE POLLS

On the strength of its semifinal appearance in the College World Series, Arkansas finished the season ranked in the top six in all of the major national college baseball polls. The Razorbacks were ranked third in the USA Today/ESPN Coaches Poll, in the NCBWA poll and in the Collegiate Baseball poll. Arkansas finished the season sixth in the Baseball America top 25. The final ranking of No. 3 was Arkansas' highest to end a season since the 1985 season when the Razorbacks were also ranked third by Collegiate Baseball.

CLOSE GAMES BECOMING THE NORM

The Arkansas baseball team has grown accustomed to playing one- or two-run games in the last two seasons. In 2012, the Razorbacks played 32 games decided by one or two runs and went 19-13 in those 32 games. Arkansas was 14-9 in one-run games during the 2012 season and had a streak of seven straight one-run victories late in the season. Six of the Razorbacks' seven wins in the NCAA Tournament were by one run.

RAZORBACKS EARN PAIR OF 1-0 WINS IN NCAA TOURNAMENT

Winning a game 1-0 is rare in college baseball, but is even rarer in the NCAA Tournament. Arkansas accomplished the feat twice during the 2012 NCAA Tournament with both victories coming on the opponent's home field. The Razorbacks defeated Rice, 1-0, in the Houston Regional and downed Baylor, 1-0, in the decisive game three of the Waco Super Regional to advance to the College World Series. How rare are 1-0 wins in the NCAA Tournament? Before the 2012 season, there had only been nine 1-0 games since the tournament expanded to its current format in 1999. There were three 1-0 games in the 2012 NCAA Tournament with Arkansas accounting for two of those. Austin Peay had the other 1-0 win, defeating Indiana State.

VAN HORN REACHES MILESTONE AS ARKANSAS COACH

Arkansas head coach Dave Van Horn reached a milestone as the Razorback head coach during the 2012 NCAA Tournament. With Arkansas' 1-0 win over Rice in the Houston Regional, Van Horn earned his 400th win as the Razorbacks' skipper. Entering the 2013 season, Van Horn's record at Arkansas is 405-223, while his career record is 990-463.

Dave Van Horn earned his 400th win as the Arkansas head coach during the 2012 NCAA Tournament.

REYNOLDS EARNS ALL-AMERICA, ALL-SEC HONORS

Third baseman Matt Reynolds had a breakout season in 2012 and was honored for his stellar play by being named an All-American by Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game and earning first team All-SEC and SEC All-Defensive Team accolades. Reynolds became the 20th player in school history to earn All-America accolades after being named to the third team by each organization. Reynolds was the top offensive performer for the Razorbacks throughout the 2012 season. He led Arkansas in all three Triple Crown categories, finshing his junior season with a .323 batting average, seven homers and 45 RBI. Reynolds also led the team in runs scored (48), doubles (20), total bases (117), slugging percentage (.498), walks (40), on-base percentage (.427) and stolen bases (16). Reynolds finished tied for the team lead with 20 multi-hit games and had a team-leading 13 multi-RBI performances. Defensively, Reynolds committed just 10 errors at the hot corner and posted a .950 fielding percentage.

Matt Reynolds was named a third-team All-American after hitting .323 with seven home runs and 45 RBI during the 2012 season.

BIGHAM, FICOCIELLO ALSO EARN ALL-SEC HONORS

Infielders Bo Bigham and Dominic Ficociello joined Reynolds on the All-SEC team, which was announced following the conference season. Bigham was named to the All-SEC second team for his work at second base, while Ficociello was selected to the league's all-defensive team for the second consecutive year. Bigham played in 63 games, including 57 starts, and finished the season with a .269 batting average with a home run and 18 RBI. In league games, Bigham ranked second on the team with a .306 batting average and added six RBI. Bigham finished the year with 18 multi-hit games, which ranked fourth on the team. Ficociello earned all-defensive team recognition for the second straight season after committing just six errors during the season for a .991 fielding percentage. In league contests, Ficociello made just one error in 315 chances for a .997 fielding percentage.

Bo Bigham was named second team All-SEC after hitting .306 in league games.

STANEK PITCHES FOR USA BASEBALL COLLEGIATE NATIONAL TEAM

For the second straight summer, right-handed pitcher Ryne Stanek was selected to play with the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team. Stanek started three games for Team USA and finished the summer with a 0-2 record and a 3.07 ERA. He struck out 13 batters in 14.2 innings and helped the team to the bronze medal at the Honkbal Week Tournament in the Netherlands. Stanek was ranked as the second-best prospect on the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team by Baseball America and Perfect Game.

ARKANSAS FINISHES SECOND IN ATTENDANCE

For the eighth straight year, Arkansas finished in the top five nationally in attendance, ranking second nationally in average attendance and third in total attendance. The Razorbacks averaged 7,893 tickets sold per game, while 260,468 tickets were sold in 33 home dates. Arkansas sold at least 7,000 tickets for 23 home games, including three crowds that ranked among the top 20 in school history in terms of tickets sold.

Arkansas finished second nationally in average attendance in 2012 with an average of 7,893 tickets sold per game.

MOORE SELECTED TO SEC COMMUNITY SERVICE TEAM

Brandon Moore was recognized for his work off the baseball field by being named to the SEC Baseball Community Service Team. A member of the Arkansas Student Athlete Advisory Committee, Moore is involved with several community service projects both on the UA campus and in the community. Moore has participated in Lift Up America, the SEC Together We CAN Food Drive, the Sweat Hawgs and Book Hogs program and with Miracle League Baseball.

EIGHT PLAYERS SELECTED IN 2012 MLB DRAFT

The Razorbacks were well represented in the 2012 MLB Draft with eight players selected. The eight selections were tied for the third-highest total in school history, equaling the 2010 and 1987 teams. Matt Reynolds and Nolan Sanburn were each drafted in the second round with Reynolds going to the New York Mets and Sanburn to the Oakland Athletics, DJ Baxendale was taken in the 10th round by the Minnesota Twins. Tim Carver was drafted by the Philadephia Phillies in the 19th round, while Sam Bates was selected in the 28th round by the Kansas City Royals. Randall Fant was drafted in the 29th round by the Cleveland Indians. Derrick Bleeker and Jacob Morris were both drafted in the 37th round with Bleeker going to the Baltimore Orioles and Morris to the Cleveland Indians.

Nolan Sanburn was one of eight Razorbacks selected in the 2012 MLB Draft.

- SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll

Ryne Stanek was named the Most Outstanding Player of the Houston Regional after throwing eight shutout innings in the Razorbacks' victory over Rice.

Matt Reynolds was named an All-American by Collegiate Baseball and Perfect Game following the 2012 season.

Ryne Stanek (left) pitched for the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team last summer, helping the team to the bronze medal at the Honkbal Week Tournament in the Netherlands. Tyler Spoon (below) played for the Anchorage Glacier Pilots in the Alaska Baseball League. Spoon was ranked as the second-best prospect in the league by Perfect Game after hitting .283 with a team-high 10 homers and 33 RBI.

During the summer of 2012, 15 current Razorbacks continued their playing days in various locations around the nation. Arkansas was represented with the USA Baseball Collegiate National Team, in the Cape Cod League, the Northwoods League, the California Collegiate League, the Alaska Baseball League and the MINK League.

2013 SEC TOURNAMENT
May 21-26, 2013
Hoover Metropolitan Stadium • Hoover, Ala.

The Southeastern Conference Baseball Tournament returns for a 16th straight year to the Hoover Metropolitan Stadium in the south-Birmingham city of Hoover, Ala., May 21-26.

The 2013 SEC Baseball Tournament will increase from 10 to 12 teams and will begin on Tuesday, May 21. Seeds 5-12 will meet in a single elimination format on the opening day of the tournament, followed by traditional double-elimination play Wednesday-Friday. The tournament will return to single elimination play on Saturday. The total number of games played will not change, remaining at 17.

The 12 teams are seeded 1-12 with the two divisional champions and top four seeds guaranteed opening-round byes, with the possibility of earning another later in the bracket. The tournament field will include the top teams from the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions plus 10 at-large bids seeded 3-12 based on conference winning percentage. Last season, Mississippi State defeated Vanderbilt 3-0 in front of 12,526 fans and a national television audience on ESPN2 to claim SEC Tournament title.

The Hoover Met formerly served as home of the Double-A Birmingham Barons (Chicago White Sox) of the Southern League. The stadium also has served as host of the NCAA Men's Soccer Final Four, as well as home to the nationally renowned Hoover Buccaneer high school football program.

The 2012 SEC Baseball Tournament drew 129,112 fans to the Hoover Met, a new record high for the event. Seven times in the last 10 years the tournament has surpassed the six-digit mark in total attendance.

The SEC is currently scheduled to keep its baseball tournament in Hoover at the Hoover Met through 2016 under the current contract.

All games of the tournament have been televised in high definition since 2008, with ESPN set to broadcast the championship game nationally for the fourth straight year in 2013.

HISTORY & RECORDS

Few schools in America enjoy as rich a history as that of the Arkansas Razorback baseball program. With seven College World Series appearances - including a national runner-up finish in 1979 - and 25 NCAA postseason appearances to its credit, the University of Arkansas has long been considered one of the nation's elite programs.

Entering their 91st season of play, the Razorbacks fielded their first team in 1897. Arkansas played for 24 years before seeing its team discontinued from 1930 to 1946. Hugo Bezdek, E.T. Pickering, T.T. McConnell, Claude Watts, Norman Coyle and Francis Schmidt served as coaches during the early days of the program. All but Watts and Coyle also served as head football coaches at the university.

The Razorbacks got back in the baseball business again in 1947 with Deke Brackett serving the first of three seasons as head coach. It was in 1950, with Razorback athletic trainer Bill Ferrell taking the reins that modern day interest in the sport ignited for the first time. Though compiling only a 139-149 record during his 16-year tenure, the foundation was laid for what was to come.

Wayne Robbins took over for the popular Ferrell in 1966 and coached for four seasons, going 50-51. His successor was a fiery young coach from Wisconsin who would eventually build the program into one of national prominence.

Norm DeBriyn was hired by Arkansas Athletics Director George Cole in 1970 and charged with making the Razorbacks competitive on a conference and national level. Arkansas baseball had not been a baseball-playing member of a league since dropping out of Southwest Conference play in 1926. One of DeBriyn's first tasks was to resume a SWC schedule, a feat which was accomplished in time for the 1974 season. His teams proved competitive in one of the nation's toughest baseball leagues and Arkansas would end up qualifying for 14 of the 15 SWC Tournaments held during the Razorbacks' membership in that league.

The Razorbacks became competitive on a larger scale as well under DeBriyn. Arkansas participated in its first NCAA postseason in 1973, DeBriyn's fourth season, and made its first trip to the NCAA College World Series in just his 10th campaign.

That trip to Omaha in 1979 saw the Razorbacks finish as national runners-up to Cal State Fullerton.

In his final season as coach, DeBriyn guided Arkansas to an NCAA Super Regional after winning the Wichita Regional with a perfect 3-0 mark. The Razorbacks came within two runs of advancing to their fifth NCAA College World Series, losing the Super Regional two games to one to the host, Clemson.

A new chapter in Arkansas baseball history began in 2003 when former Razorback player and graduate assistant coach Dave Van Horn was named head coach after DeBriyn retired following the 2002 season. Since taking over at his alma mater, Van Horn has continued to grow the Razorback program with trips to the College World Series in 2004, 2009 and 2012, 10 straight NCAA Tournament berths and four Super Regional appearances.

Facilities have played an important role in the history of Razorback baseball. Upon DeBriyn's arrival, the Razorbacks were playing games at the run-down and disheveled Washington County Fairgrounds field barely fit for pasture land. By 1975, Arkansas had moved into George Cole Field, one of the few college ballparks in the country with an artificial playing surface. The park gave the program immediate respectability and Arkansas would advance five times to NCAA postseason play and twice to the NCAA College World Series in its first decade in the park.

Lights were added in 1985 with the help of former standouts Kevin McReynolds, Johnny Ray and Tim Lollar, a move that again advanced the program to another level.

George Cole Field was the site of the Razorback baseball program's coming of age. The Razorbacks would go 567-142-2 at the facility for a winning percentage of .799. It was the site of the school's first league tournament championship, in 1985, and home to a parade of all-conference and All-America players. McReynolds, Ray, Lollar and Tom Pagnozzi - some of the first Razorbacks to make a significant impact in Major League Baseball - were just a few of many DeBriyn pupils who honed their skills at George Cole Field and went on to excel in the majors.

Arkansas baseball is not just about those who have been able to play the game for a living. The Razorbacks have produced 92 all-conference selections (all since 1976 when Bill Montgomery was named All-Southwest Conference), 37 All-America picks (Lollar was the first in 1978), 55 all-conference tournament selections, four conference titles (1989, 1990, 1999, 2004), one conference tournament championship and nine NCAA Regional Tournament championships. Since joining the SEC in 1992, Arkansas has already placed 33 players on All-SEC lists. Adding all these feats to the fact that Arkansas baseball has seen 42 of its stars go on to play in the major leagues, has dozens currently playing professional baseball and claims six major league first-round draft picks in McReynolds (1981), Jeff King (1986), David Walling (1999), Nick Schmidt (2007), Logan Forsythe (2008) and Zack Cox (2010).

Although he retired following the 2002 season, the magic continues with DeBriyn's subtle influence on the lives of Charlie Baum and Willard & Pat Walker families, key contributors to perhaps the crowning achievement of DeBriyn's tenure - Baum Stadium at George Cole Field. The 8,237-seat stadium, which can accommodate a crowd of 10,737, is unparalleled in the country in form and function and has moved the program to an even higher level of achievement.

Designed by the nationally acclaimed firm HOK, designers of such jewels as Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Coors Field and Progressive Field, Baum Stadium at George Cole Field played host to its first game on April 13, 1996, as a then-record crowd of 3,328 saw the Razorbacks defeat Auburn in a doubleheader sweep. Named the best college baseball facility in the nation by Baseball America in 1998, the stadium has ignited the interest of Razorback fans throughout the region and helped Arkansas lead the nation in tickets sold in 2007 with 8,069 per game and set a then-NCAA record in the process.

Many former Razorbacks have given something back to the program that helped propel them to the professional ranks, but none so much as the all-star catcher Pagnozzi. In addition to contributing the funds which made possible the Razorback clubhouse that bears his name, the annual Tom Pagnozzi Invitational Golf Tournament and surrounding events raise thousands of dollars each year for the Arkansas baseball program.

Memorable moments of Arkansas baseball vary with the observer. Arkansas' first NCAA postseason appearance in 1973 at Arlington Stadium in Arlington, Texas, will long be considered a watershed moment for DeBriyn's program. Though the Razorbacks lost two straight, it was a signal the program had arrived. Just six years later, the Razorbacks raced through the NCAA East Regional in Tallahassee, Fla., in four games to advance to the College World Series in Omaha, Neb., for the first time.

Three more wins in the then-true double elimination event put Arkansas in the championship game against Cal State Fullerton. Fullerton, playing with one loss, won the first championship game, 13-10, forcing a winner-take-all rematch. Fullerton won that one as well, 2-1, sending the disappointed Razorbacks home with the national runner-up trophy.

A third-place finish at the 1985 CWS also saw the Razorbacks go through Tallahassee and started a five-year stretch in which Arkansas advanced to Omaha three times, each time on an odd year. Fifth-place finishes in 1987 and 1989 were outstanding achievements for phenomenal teams.

Arkansas played host to its first Southwest Conference tournament in 1985, winning in three-straight games at George Cole Field with an opening win over Baylor and back-to-back victories over rival Texas. It was another example of facilities playing a role in the program's success - only the addition of lights that season enabled the school to snare the tournament host honor from traditional sites Texas and Texas A&M.

Memorable moments are hard to narrow to such a small space but would include some hard-to-forget home runs and pitching performances. Ralph Kraus ushered in the school's first home night game in classic style with a home run in the bottom of the ninth inning to defeat Texas before thousands in 1985. McReynolds will long be known for his towering shots both at George Cole Field and at the SWC Tournament at Texas A&M in 1980.

There have been 12 no-hitters in school history, the most recent by the combination of Nick Schmidt, Brian McLelland and Devin Collis in 2006. They blanked Oklahoma State to join former Razorbacks Rich Erwin (1976), David Rhodes (1977), Scott Glanz (1982), Tim Deitz (1983), Fred Faust (1984), Steve Parker (1986), Dennis Fletcher-Tim Sherrill-Tim Peters (1987), Brian Cook-Brian Dennison (1991), Todd Abbott (1994), Richie Nye (1996) and Scott Roehl (2001) as no-hit specialists. Steve Krueger recorded the Southwest Conference's lowest league ERA in 1979 and 1980.

Another Nye helped the Razorbacks make history again on the final day of the 1999 regular season. Rodney Nye homered in each of his first three trips to the plate to help the Razorbacks to a victory that gave UA its first SEC Western Division and overall titles.

Baum Stadium has already seen its share of memorable games in its short lifespan, such as Arkansas' 11-run rally to beat South Carolina 17-16 in 1998 and a 16-0 win over Eastern Illinois in which David Walling fanned 16 batters to help give Norm DeBriyn his 1,000th career victory.

In 1999, the Razorbacks took their home field advantage to a new level, going 14-1 in home SEC games and ending the season with 13-consecutive conference victories at the facility. The solid play in home league games helped the Razorbacks earn division and overall league titles and brought an NCAA regional to the UA campus for the first time in school history.

In 2004, Arkansas duplicated the feat again earning a share of the SEC crown and topping the SEC West. Picked last in the division to begin the season, Van Horn guided this gritty bunch of Razorbacks to their second league title since joining the SEC. For their efforts, Arkansas earned a coveted national seed in the NCAA Tournament draw and hosted its second regional in school history.

The Razorbacks hosted the largest attended NCAA regional as 38,773 fans packed Baum Stadium for the three-day event. Arkansas didn't disappoint, although it took a historic comeback to send the home crowd away happy. Down to its last out in an elimination game against Wichita State, Arkansas got a grand slam from junior catcher Brady Toops to complete an improbable 11-9 comeback win against Wichita State. Arkansas held off the Shockers, 4-3, in the regional final to secure the school's first-ever NCAA Super Regional.

The following weekend, Arkansas dominated No. 12 Florida State in a two-game sweep of the Seminoles televised nationally by ESPN. Razorback fans set a new NCAA record for super regional attendance at an on-campus venue drawing 9,338 on Friday and 10,027 on Saturday. With the 4-2 win on Saturday, Arkansas clinched its fifth College World Series berth.

Omaha did not prove as kind to the Razorbacks, as Arkansas dropped a pair of games to Texas and Arizona. Despite the quick exit, the improbable run of this underdog Razorback squad captured the imagination of UA fans everywhere laying the groundwork for even bigger and better things to come.

During the 2009 regular season, Arkansas earned its first-ever No. 1 ranking and defeated Arizona State in front of a then-Baum-record 11,014 fans in the facility's first matchup between top-ranked teams; the Sun Devils were also ranked No. 1 at the time.

In 2009, having swept through the Norman Regional and Tallahassee Super Regional, upsetting national seeds Oklahoma and Florida State, respectively, the Razorbacks earned their sixth trip to Omaha.

Arkansas split its first two games, besting Cal State Fullerton and then losing to LSU. The Razorbacks found themselves one out away from elimination against Virginia before Brett Eibner lifted a two-run shot to left field to tie the game. Arkansas went on to win the instant classic, 4-3, in 12 innings. The Razorbacks closed out the CWS with a tie for third place.

The Razorbacks advanced to the Super Regionals for the fourth time in school history in 2010. Arkansas was selected to host a regional for the fifth time in program history and took full advantage of playing at home, defeating Washington State, 7-2, in a winner-take-all regional final. The Razorbacks advanced to play top seed Arizona State in the Tempe Super Regional and gave the Sun Devils all they could handle over two thrilling 12-inning contests. Arizona State won game one, 7-6, before taking game two, 7-5, to eliminate Arkansas.

Arkansas won its fourth SEC Western Division title and continued its streak of NCAA Tournament appearances in 2011. The Razorbacks reached the championship game of the NCAA Tempe Regional before falling to Arizona State. Arkansas finished the season with a 40-22 record, marking the 17th 40-win season in program history and third-consecutive season of at least 40 wins for the Razorbacks.

The Razorbacks reached the College World Series for the third time under Van Horn in 2012 as Arkansas put together a memorable postseason run that saw them down old SWC rivals Rice and Baylor on their home fields. Arkansas opened its tournament run in Houston as it defeated Sam Houston State twice and downed eighth-ranked Rice in a 1-0 shutout.

The next week, Arkansas returned to the state of Texas and faced No. 4 national seed, Baylor. After dropping the opener of the super regional, Arkansas responded by winning the next two games to punch its ticket to Omaha. The decisive game of the Super Regional was a classic pitcher's duel. The game was scoreless until the top of the 10th inning when Arkansas broke through on Jake Wise's RBI single, scoring Brian Anderson. Randall Fant, Nolan Sanburn, Brandon Moore, Trent Daniel and Colby Suggs combined to shut down the high-powered Baylor offense and send Arkansas to Omaha.

In the College World Series, the Razorbacks opened by winning its first two games, defeating Kent State, 8-1, in the opener and then downing South Carolina, 2-1, to snap the Gamecocks' 22-game NCAA postseason win streak. Arkansas would finish tied for third in the CWS after South Carolina defeated the Razorbacks twice.

A rich history with legendary players, coaches and games make Arkansas baseball a unique and treasured program. With Baum Stadium as a backdrop for the Razorbacks' continued competition in the toughest league in the nation, Arkansas baseball promises to bring fans many more great moments for many years to come.

Former Razorbacks Ronn Reynolds, Kevin McReynolds, Tim Lollar and Johnny Ray with long-time Arkansas head coach Norm DeBriyn (middle).

Key: Players selected in the June first-year player draft unless otherwise noted. Following the 1987 season there has only been one draft (June Draft). The first MLB Draft was held in 1965. Prior to 1965, players just signed professional contracts once their collegiate careers were over.

$ - Selected in January draft
% - Selected in June secondary draft
* - Played or plays in the Major Leagues
^ - Returned to school

Jess Todd was an integral part of Arkansas' stellar pitching staff in 2007. He was one of three pitchers to be drafted in the first two rounds of the MLB Draft.

In three years at Arkansas, Nick Schmidt went 22-8 with a 2.83 ERA. The southpaw was the No. 23 pick of the San Diego Padres in the 2007 MLB Draft, Arkansas' highest pick since Jeff King went No. 1 in 1986.

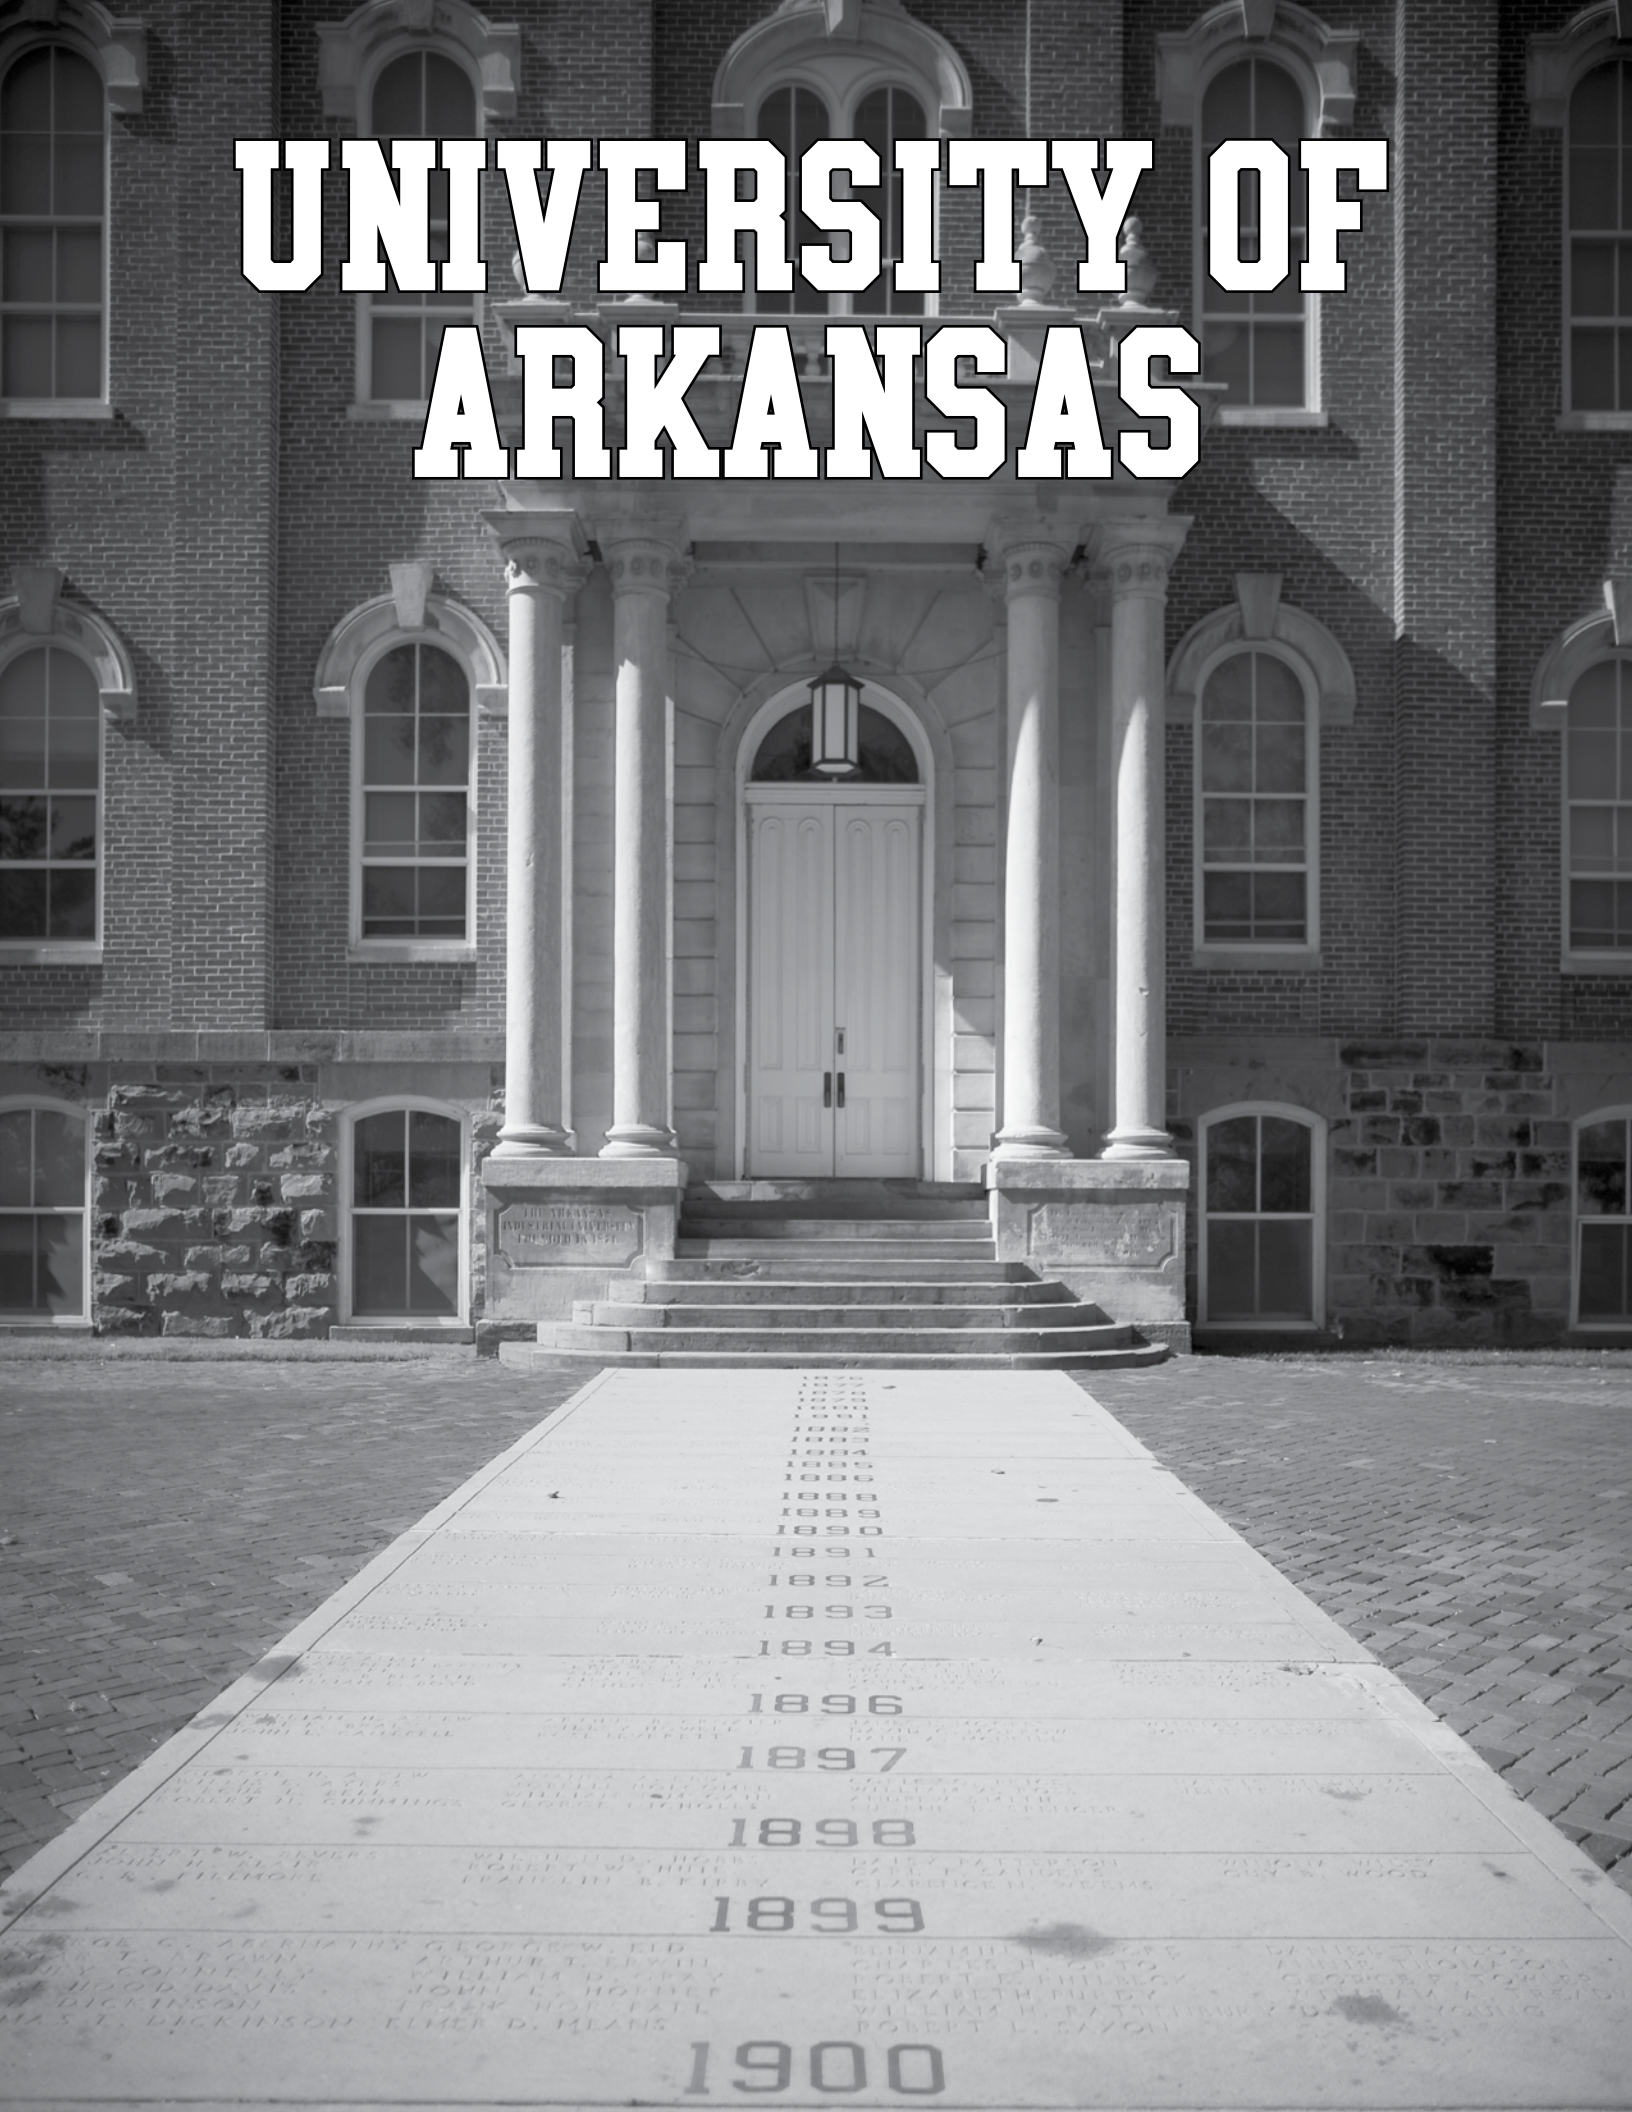
UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS



Founded in 1871, The University of Arkansas is the flagship institution of the University of Arkansas System. Located in Fayetteville in Arkansas' northwest corner, the U of A is the state's foremost partner and resource for education and economic development.

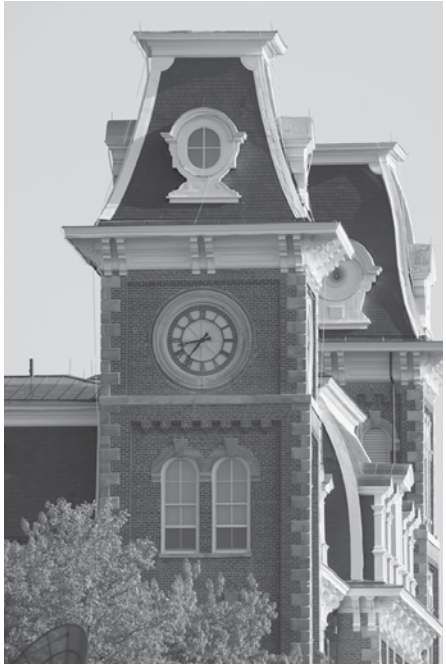
The U of A offers 213 baccalaureate, master's, doctoral, professional and specialist degree programs. In keeping with its status as Arkansas' land-grant university, the U of A has a 140-year-old mandate to educate, to conduct basic and applied research, and to extend knowledge and resources to the people of Arkansas and beyond through public engagement and service. The Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching recently classified the U of A as a national research university with a very high level of research activity, based on the number of doctoral degrees awarded, research grants received, and other factors. The U of A is the only Arkansas institution with such a ranking and is among just 108 institutions in the United States (out of 4,633) to have received that classification.

The U of A has enormous influence over Arkansans' social, cultural, and recreational life, especially the widespread passion for the university's athletics teams, the Arkansas Razorbacks. The U of A's location in northwest Arkansas is viewed as one of the university's strongest attributes. Fayetteville is widely recognized as one of the best college communities in the U.S. The city's Dickson Street district abuts the U of A campus and features scores of restaurants, shops, and entertainment venues. Northwest Arkansas is a vibrant economic region with a national reputation for its high quality of life.

Three of the U.S.'s largest corporations have their world headquarters in the region: Tyson Foods, J.B. Hunt Transportation, and the world's largest retailer, Walmart, Inc. Because of their presence, many other corporations have established primary or secondary headquarters in Northwest Arkansas. Their close proximity to the U of A campus, along with their executives' and employees' active involvement in university life, offers students and faculty exceptional opportunities for research partnerships, internships, and post-graduation employment.

The U of A boasts one of the most unique features and traditions found on any college or university campus: Senior Walk, a nearly three-mile stretch of concrete sidewalks crisscrossing campus into which the names of every U of A graduate is engraved. More than 140,000 names currently appear, grouped alphabetically by year of graduation. Senior Walk epitomizes the university's emphasis on "putting students first," a philosophy captured in its tag line, "the YOU of A."

The U of A features distinctive architecture, including its signature building, Old Main, finished in 1875. As the original administrative facility, the iconic building now houses the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences. The college is named in



OLD MAIN

One of the original buildings on Arkansas' campus, Old Main symbolizes the strong connection to the past and the focus upon the future which come together in the present at the University of Arkansas. Completed in 1875, Old Main stood the test of time until the mid-1980s when age and modern building codes threatened to send it to the wrecking ball as had happened to its sister building at the University of Illinois. A major fund-raising campaign by alumni totally renovated Old Main. Reopening in 1992, the building maintains the feel of a Victorian-era building with high ceilings and elaborate wooden trim. Just below the surface of the period hardwood floors, Old Main is hard-wired to the internet and built to last well into its second century.

Even with renovation, Old Main remained unfinished until 2005. One of the gifts during the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century specified the installation of a clock, originally planned for the blank faces of the south tower.

As mentioned, Old Main was built from shared plans with its counterpart on the Illinois campus, with one important difference. The north tower of Arkansas' Old Main is taller than the south tower. Legend says this was symbolic of the Civil War as the lead engineer was a northern veteran.

honor of former U of A President (and, later, U.S. Senator) J. William Fulbright, who helped create the prestigious international scholarship and fellowship programs that bear his name. The U of A's distinctive Fulbright Peace Fountain, designed by architect Fay Jones, recognizes its namesake's role in promoting peaceful resolution of world conflicts.

Academically, the U of A is organized into 10 schools and colleges: the Dale Bumpers College of Agricultural, Food and Life Sciences; the College of Education and Health Professions; the College of Engineering; the J. William Fulbright College of Arts and Sciences; and the Sam M. Walton College of Business. The university also features the Fay Jones School of Architecture, the Graduate School and International Education, the Honors College, the School of Law and the Global Campus, which provides academic outreach and programs to more than 15,000 learners a year.

The U of A's total annual operating budget for FY2012 is $528 million. Tuition and fee revenues make up the largest source of revenues, followed by an annual state appropriation. Almost 77 percent of all full-time undergraduate students receive some form of financial aid. U of A undergraduate tuition rates were ranked 38th lowest in the nation among land-grant universities, in keeping with the university's emphasis on keeping itself accessible and affordable.

In August 2011, the U of A enrolled a record 23,119 students. The student body consisted of students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries. More than 300 student organizations also exist on campus. There are plenty of things to do on- and off-campus. The HPER Center, the university's state-of-the-art recreational facility, offers a great place to climb, swim, run, lift weights, do aerobics and yoga, or play basketball. Cultural and recreational options include attending lectures, readings, and theatrical performances, shopping opportunities, and listening to live music on nearby Dickson Street.

In 2009, University Chancellor G. David Gearhart presented a long-range strategic plan that was formally endorsed by the elected leaders of the faculty, staff, and student body. The plan emphasizes a commitment to "students first," and outlines goals and strategies to ensure that all students receive the resources and support they need to achieve their academic goals. The plan also emphasizes the U of A's commitment to transparency and accountability to the people of Arkansas in its operation.

More information about the U of A may be found at www.uark.edu.

SENIOR WALK

The University of Arkansas is proud to be the last university in the nation maintaining what once was a common tradition of etching its graduates' names into the campus sidewalks. The 100,000th graduate's name went down in cement during the 1990s. The names on Senior Walk stretch over three miles of campus sidewalks.

The story of Senior Walk is a perfect example of how the University of Arkansas brings its commitment to the past together with innovations for the future. When the costs involved in hand-etching names into concrete forced numerous other universities to give up, the University of Arkansas turned to its physical plant and engineering school grads to create a one-of-a-kind computerized sandblasting machine -- the SandHog. Each summer, the SandHog roars across the front lawn of Old Main, etching the names of graduates into sidewalks.

DR. G. DAVID GEARHART

CHANCELLOR

Dr. G. David Gearhart became the chancellor of the University of Arkansas on July 1, 2008, following 10 years of service to the university as vice chancellor for university advancement. Previously he was senior vice president of Penn State University, during which time he was named a Fulbright Scholar, studying at Oxford University in Oxford, England.

His Bachelor of Arts degree is from Westminster College in Missouri. Both his law degree and his doctor of education degree are from the University of Arkansas. He is a native of Fayetteville.

Prior to being appointed chancellor, Dr. Gearhart oversaw the Campaign for the Twenty-First Century, the most successful capital campaign in Arkansas history, which raised more than $1 billion for academic programs.

As chancellor, Dr. Gearhart instituted the first tuition freeze in 24 years and implemented a $220 million campus building renovation and refurbishment plan, as well as a campus-wide energy savings plan. He has also undertaken a renewed emphasis on the arts on campus, including the establishment of the "All Steinway Campus."

Dr. Gearhart has additionally implemented a major cost savings program that has already resulted in over $29.4 million in cost reduction and savings to the flagship campus. Campus enrollment has also grown by nearly 6,000 students in the past three years to almost 25,000 students. At the same time, diversity in the student body has increased significantly.

He and his wife of more than 35 years, Jane, have two children and two grandchildren.

DR. SHARON HUNT

FACULTY ATHLETICS REPRESENTATIVE

Chancellor G. David Gearhart appointed Dr. Sharon Hunt to be the faculty athletics representative (FAR) for the University of Arkansas in August 2010.

Dr. Hunt is the first woman and non-lawyer to hold the post. Dr. Hunt has been on the University of Arkansas faculty since 1990, and she served as the department head of the recently renamed Department of Health, Human Performance and Recreation from July 1,1990 until June 30, 2011 except for the 2000-01 academic year, when she served as the interim dean of the College of Education and Health Professions On June 30, 2011 Dr. Hunt stepped down as department head and returned to the faculty at the rank of Professor giving her more time to devote to the FAR position.

A high school athlete, Hunt's involvement with collegiate athletics dates back to her own college days at the University of Arkansas when she played extramural sports with the women's basketball and tennis teams prior to the enactment of Title IX.

After receiving her bachelor's and master's degrees in physical education from the university, she went on to earn a Doctor of Education degree from the University of Georgia, where she taught a variety of undergraduate courses as a graduate assistant. Upon the completion of her doctoral degree, she joined the faculty of the University of Kentucky for 13 years, where she taught both undergraduate and graduate courses and served as the graduate coordinator for the Department of Health, Physical Education and Recreation. In 1990, she and her family returned to Fayetteville.

The FAR's responsibilities lie in three broad areas: academic integrity within the athletics program, student-athlete well-being, and institutional control of the athletics program. Dr. Hunt is involved in the student-athlete advisory council on campus and chairs the Academic Credential Review Committee and Athletic's Academic Integrity Committee, and serves as an ex-officio member of the Faculty Athletics Committee. In addition, she travels to represent the University of Arkansas at various SEC and NCAA meetings.

Dr. Hunt was instrumental in establishing the graduate athletic training education program in the College of Education and Health Professions, and she has worked closely with athletics on that program. The athletics department provides support to students in the athletic training education program in the form of a stipend, books and travel to the Arkansas Athletic Trainers' Association annual meeting. Two endowed scholarships for athletic training students in honor of longtime Razorback trainers Dean Weber and the late Bill Ferrell were established through the athletics department.

Dr. Hunt has been married to David Hunt since 1973, and they have an adult son and daughter as well as one grandson and granddaughter.

JEFF LONG

VICE CHANCELLOR FOR INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETICS & DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Entering his fifth full year as Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, Jeff Long has guided the University of Arkansas' Department of Intercollegiate Athletics through a period of unprecedented transition and gained national attention for his leadership while revitalizing a tradition-rich athletics program encompassing 19 sports and more than 460 student-athletes.

Long leads a comprehensive athletics program uniformly committed to the development of student-athletes academically, athletically and socially. A part of Chancellor G. David Gearhart's Executive Committee, Long is helping to chart the course for the future of higher education at the University of Arkansas while integrating Razorback Athletics into the campus community. In each of the past three years, Razorback Athletics has made a $1 million gift to support the university's academic mission. The department's total support of university and student programs and initiatives includes $1.9 million in direct funding of academic programs.

Long's leadership and unwavering commitment to the student-athletes and maintaining integrity within intercollegiate athletics has not gone unnoticed. In 2011-12, Long was named a finalist for the SportsBusiness Journal and SportsBusiness Daily Athletic Director of the Year. In the spring of 2012, the Donald W. Reynolds Foundation and longtime chairman Fred W. Smith made a gift of more than $1.25 million to the program in recognition of Long's leadership of Razorback Athletics.

In Long's tenure, Arkansas has captured 11 conference championships and advanced to 68 post-season competitions, including the school's first Bowl Championship Series appearance in football, while drawing more than a million fans annually to campus to cheer on the Razorbacks. In 2011-12, Arkansas finished No. 20 in the Learfield Sports Directors Cup, a year-long competition ranking the nation's most successful intercollegiate athletic programs, the fourth time in the past five years the Razorbacks have finished in the nation's top 25.

In the classroom, the Razorbacks continue to set new standards including posting a student-athlete grade point average of 3.07 in 2011-12. It marked the fourth consecutive year Razorback student-athletes posted a GPA exceeding 3.0. Arkansas exceeds the national APR multi-year rate by more than 10 points in 18 sports and has seen a steady rise in graduation success rates.

Student-athlete development has also been a priority including the establishment of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference. In the community, Razorback student-athletes are more active than ever volunteering more than 5,000 hours of time for more than 100 agencies, organizations and schools.

One of the nation's most active athletic directors on Twitter, Long embraces the opportunity to interact with members of the Razorback Nation whether in person or through social media.

Long was selected to replace legendary athletic director and former Razorback football coach Frank Broyles and even before he officially took the reins on Jan. 1, 2008, Arkansas announced that it would combine its previously independent men's and women's athletic programs into one combined athletic program. Long adeptly blended the men's and women's athletic departments into one unified department and established a new administrative structure.

Long has also worked tirelessly to maintain long-time relationships and to forge new relationships for the benefit of the Razorback program including extending Arkansas' relationship with War Memorial Stadium and partnering with former Razorback Jerry Jones to develop the Southwest Classic, a football series with Texas A&M played at the spectacular Cowboys Stadium.

Under Long's leadership, the program has fortified its financial standing ensuring more support for the development of student-athletes. According to the Wall Street Journal, Arkansas is one of only 22 self-sustaining Division I-A athletic programs in the nation. As economic indicators were beginning to point toward challenging economic times, Long signed Arkansas to a deal with IMG College to form Razorback Sports Properties that guarantees the Razorback program $73 million during the course of the decade-long agreement. Long also negotiated an extensive all sports apparel and footwear agreement with NIKE, Inc. that will outfit all 19 Razorback sports programs through the 2014-15 season. In December 2011, Forbes Magazine estimated the value of the Razorback Football program at $89 million, eighth in the nation. Arkansas saw the largest increase (59%) from the previous rankings released in 2009.

In 2010, Long moved to help meet the growing financial needs of fielding a nationally competitive all sports program. The athletic department launched the "Answer the Call" campaign through the Razorback Foundation which resulted in more than 2,600 new members and helped generate more than $6.5 million in additional support for Razorback student-athletes.

With an eye towards the future, Long commissioned a comprehensive plan to assess the future facility needs of the program. Unveiled in October 2011, the Razorback Athletic Facilities Master Plan provided a vision and the road map for $320 million of facility renovations and additions that will help all 19 Razorback sports remain competitive in the Southeastern Conference and nationally over the next 30 years. The first major project from the master plan, the football center, is currently being constructed with a targeted completion date in 2013.

A veteran administrator with a track record of the highest commitment to the concept of "student-athlete," Long has had more than two decades experience in athletic administration at the Division I level including at the University of Pittsburgh, University of Oklahoma, University of Michigan, Virginia Tech University, Eastern Kentucky University and Rice University. Long also understands the coach's perspective from time spent in coaching staff positions at Duke University, University of Michigan and North Carolina State University.

His experience as an athletic director and administrator in five of the six Bowl Championship Series conferences – the Big 12, Big Ten, Big East, Atlantic Coast and SEC - gives Long a uniquely informed perspective on intercollegiate athletics.

On the forefront of NCAA governance, Long has served on the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA's Sports Wagering Task Force and as a member of the Executive Committee of the Division I-A Athletic Directors' Association. Long currently serves on the NCAA Championships/Sports Management Cabinet.

Prior to assuming his current roles at Arkansas, Long served for four years as the athletic director at the University of Pittsburgh. Long redefined Pitt athletics, most notably through the "Quest for Excellence" campaign that raised nearly $34 million to enhance the student-athlete experience. During his tenure the Panthers' were selected as the No. 17 overall program in the nation in the December 2006 Sports Illustrated on Campus' All-Sport Rankings.

Before arriving at Pitt, Long was senior associate athletic director at Oklahoma for two and a half years overseeing external affairs for the Sooners. In addition, Long was the primary administrator for the Sooners' highly successful football and men's basketball programs, along with sport supervision of baseball, wrestling and both golf teams.

Long's first appointment as a director of athletics was at Eastern Kentucky where he served for two and a half years. Prior to Eastern, Long had a brief stay with Virginia Tech as an associate athletics director.

He began his career in college athletic administration at Michigan, hired by legendary coach and athletics director, the late Bo Schembechler. During his seasons with the Wolverines, Long was promoted through a series of posts to the position of associate athletics director.

A former two-sport athlete at Ohio Wesleyan, Long earned seven varsity letters for the Bishops in football and baseball before completing his degree in economics in 1982. He started his post-graduate career in athletics working on head coach Tom Reed's staff as a graduate assistant football coach at the cradle of coaches, Miami University of Ohio. Long earned his master's in education at Miami in 1983, moving on to football staff positions at Rice, Duke and N.C. State prior to joining Michigan.

An Ohio native from Kettering, Long is married to the former Fanny Gellrich of Ann Arbor, Mich. The Longs have two daughters, Stephanie and Christina.

BEV LEWIS
ASSOCIATE VICE CHANCELLOR & EXECUTIVE ASSOCIATE AD

Bev Lewis has served the University of Arkansas and its Razorback athletic programs for more than three decades.

The former women's athletic director prior to the department merger in 2007-08, Lewis now serves as the associate vice chancellor and executive associate athletic director for administration and sport programs. Lewis is also the coordinator of a five-member sport administrator group that provides day-to-day administrative support for each of Arkansas' 19 sports. Lewis is the sport administrator for men's and women's cross country, men's and women's track and field, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, softball and volleyball. In addition, Lewis is the primary administrator working with the Razorbacks' strength and conditioning units and athletic training and sports medicine program as well as overseeing media relations. She also serves as a liaison to the faculty senate and the faculty athletic committee, and coordinates the department's NCAA certification, Title IX compliance and strategic planning. Lewis was elected to the 2011-12 Southeastern Conference Executive Committee assisting the league office in a leadership role.

The largest portion of her service to the university was her 19-year tenure as the Director of Women's Athletics. As a result of her strong emphasis on the classroom, Razorback female student-athletes received numerous academic honors including national academic All-American of the year, team academic national titles and the university's first two SEC/H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athletes of the Year.

Her leadership was also a part of the success of the university's Campaign for the Twenty-First Century. Lewis directed Women's Athletics to over $11.5 million in direct support for women's teams. During the campaign, Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' $6 million facility be named the Bev Lewis Center. In 1998, she was voted into the University Of Arkansas Hall Of Honor.

Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, first with the NCAA Championship Cabinet and recently on the NCAA Management Council. Prior to assuming the duties of AD, Lewis was women's cross country and track coach. Her Arkansas coaching milestones included the first women's squad to achieve a national ranking and the first conference championship team with the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships.

Lewis earned her bachelor's degree from Central Michigan in 1979 and followed it with her master's from Purdue prior to her arrival at Arkansas in 1981. The former Bev Rouse, is married to Harley Lewis.

MATT TRANTHAM
SENIOR ASSOCIATE AD FOR INTERNAL OPERATIONS

Matt Trantham joined the University of Arkansas in 2008 as the senior associate athletic director for internal operations. He oversees all Razorback facilities and events.

With this role, Trantham has overseen the Razorback Athletics Facilities Master Plan recently unveiled in October 2011. Additionally he serves as Administrative supervisor for the new Arkansas Football Center scheduled for completion during the Summer of 2013. Additional projects forthcoming as part of the Master Plan will be a Student-Athlete Success Center, a basketball practice facility and a baseball and track indoor training facility with design/constructions teams recently approved by the Board of Trustees in Sept. 2012. Other projects supervised have been the $2.5 million renovation of Bud Walton Arena in 2008, the $1.3 million installation of synthetic playing surface and $1.2 million installation of ribbon boards at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium in 2009, expansion of Razorback soccer team facilities in 2011 and $4.6 million installation of new video displays at Donald W. Reynolds Razorback stadium prior to the 2012 season.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Trantham began his career with the University of Oklahoma in July 1999 as the promotions director for the athletic department where he worked with all 20 of OU's teams. He was named assistant athletic director for event management in 2004 and was promoted to associate athletic director in 2006. Prior to joining the Sooners, Trantham spent five seasons in professional sports in Washington, D.C. Trantham earned his bachelor's of science degree in business management from Centenary College in 1990 and a master's degree in sports management from the United States Sports Academy in 1998.

Trantham and wife Kristen are parents of two sons, Will and Davis, and two daughters, Morgan and Paige.

JASON SUITT
DIRECTOR OF MARKETING

Jason Suitt has been a part of the Razorback marketing and licensing staff since the summer of 1999.

A 1999 graduate of South Carolina with a bachelor's in sports administration, Suitt assists in the marketing and promotion efforts of all 19 intercollegiate sports while focusing on the football, gymnastics and baseball programs. Suitt works closey with Razorback Sports Properties (RSP) to implement promotions at all Razorback events. He coordinates advertising traffic with four newspapers, two television stations, two local radio groups, one cable system and several specialty publications. In addition, he assists in the day-to-day operations of UA's licensing program, assists in game management, works closely with videoboard and LED board production crews and coordinates the AT&T Fan Zone tailgating area during football season.

Prior to UA's relationship with RSP, Suitt assisted in soliciting sponsorship and advertising packages, oversaw game program production and sales, assisted in the functions of RazorZone (currently Razorvision) and served as assistant general manager of the Razorback Baseball Radio Network.

He has served on several NCAA and SEC Championship committees for baseball and track & field held at UA. In 2001, he served on the committee to develop new athletic department logos.

Prior to joining UA's staff, he worked as an intern in the marketing and sports information offices at The Citadel in Charleston, S.C.

Suitt is a 1994 graduate of Sumter (S.C.) High School, where he lettered in baseball. He is a charter member of the Fayetteville Metro Kiwanis Club, a member of the National Association of Collegiate Marketing Administrators (NACMA) and a member of the Northwest Arkansas Young Professionals. He is married to the former Ashley M. Anderson of Joplin, Mo. The couple has one daughter, Etta Mae.

MARK TAYLOR
ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

As assistant equipment manager, Mark Taylor plays a key role in providing Arkansas with one of the most experienced staffs around. Entering has 19th year with the Razorbacks, Taylor and equipment manager Tim Cheney have a combined 35 years of experience.

The equipment room staff handles the distribution to athletes and coaches, any necessary repair, and all ordering and laundering. They are also responsible for coordinating with the coaching staff to ensure all required practice accessories are where they should be for appropriate drills and workouts. After the team has left the field and locker room, the equipment room staff is still around, getting everything ready for the next day.

Taylor joined the athletic department in 1991 after serving in the equipment room at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, La. He has made 10 bowl trips with the Razorbacks, including the 1991 Independence Bowl, the 1995 CarQuest Bowl, the 1999 Florida Citrus Bowl, the 2000 Cotton Bowl, the 2000 Las Vegas Bowl, the 2002 Cotton Bowl, the 2002 Music City Bowl, the 2003 Independence Bowl the 2007 Capital One Bowl and the 2008 Cotton Bowl.

An all-district football and basketball player at Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Taylor worked in the equipment room at Ouachita Baptist for four years while working on his degree. He graduated from high school in 1983 and earned his degree in health and physical education from Ouachita in 1988.

He spent his first year out of college in private business before accepting a position at Nicholls State. He earned his master's degree in education and supervision from Nicholls State while working for the equipment department.

Taylor and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Anna and Abby.

ACADEMIC SERVICES

Recognizing the difficulty of balancing the demands of athletic competition at the highest level and completion of the rigorous academic standards of a Carnegie research-level university, the Razorback Athletic Department provides support services through both facilities and personnel to guide Arkansas student-athletes to their ultimate goal: University of Arkansas diploma.

The key components of the Office of Student-Athlete Success (OSAS) are personal development, career development, academic counseling, tutoring, study hall facilities, class attendance monitoring and incentive awards recognizing academic achievement.

BOGLE ACADEMIC CENTER

There is no higher priority for the University of Arkansas Athletic Department than the academic progress of its scholar-athletes. Thanks to the generous gift of Bob and Marilyn Bogle, the home of the Razorback Athletic Department's Office of Student-Athlete Success is the Bob and Marilyn Bogle Academic Center. The 15,000-square foot Bogle Academic Center is located in the east side of Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Under the overall direction of Senior Associate Athletic Director Jon Fagg, the Bogle Academic Center houses the Arkansas Razorbacks Academic Support Program, the Razorback Student-Athlete Development Office and the Career Development Program.

Associate Athletic Director for Student-Athlete Services Eric A. Wood oversees the staff of professionals dedicated to directing student-athletes to reach their personal academic goals, and to do so in ways that balance their academic, athletic and personal lives.

STUDY HALL AND TUTORS

The Bogle Academic Center provides three types of study hall space. The computer lab has more than 30 stations for individual computer-based study. There is an open study hall available for group or individual study, and a quiet area for individual study time. There are 17 individual study carrels that provide space for tutors to meet with student-athletes for individual instruction in specific subjects.

Each Razorback team sets its own criteria for study hall attendance. The use of tutors is a key element for academic success, allowing for individualized assistance and for reaching academic excellence in advanced subjects.

STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT

The mission of the Student-Athlete Development Office is to contribute to the personal growth and character development of Razorback student-athletes through holistic programming for success in life.

The Student-Athlete Development Office continues to expand its commitment to the offerings and opportunities in the following areas:

* Academic Excellence
* Athletic Excellence
* Career Development and Graduate School Preparation
* Community Service
* Personal Development
* Health and Wellness
* Leadership and Character Development
* Financial Planning

Our Goals

* Provide the resources to support the academic progress toward intellectual development and graduation for our student-athletes.
* Provide career development programs that will enable our student-athletes to develop and pursue career and life goals.
* Engage our student-athletes in experiences involving the university, local, state, national, and global communities through services.
* Support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle, decision-making skills, encouraging emotional well-being, and personal growth for our student-athletes.
* Invest in the personal development of our student-athletes through various programs that enable them to be successful in the classroom, the community, and in their athletic activities.

The Student-Athlete Development Office coordinated more than 6,000 hours dedicated to service in Northwest Arkansas and worldwide. Razorback student-athletes worked with more than 100 agencies giving of their time and energy last season. Student-athletes took part in career fairs, corporate office visits and interview training.

Razorback student-athletes took advantage of the Razorback Leadership Academy, the first of its kind in the SEC. Student-athletes, coaches and staff were shown steps to become better leaders on their teams, in the classroom, in the workplace and in life.

Finally, student-athletes participated in Hogs in Transition, a program designed to help Razorbacks make the move from high school to college. Incoming student-athletes are trained in note taking, time management and computer competency as they begin their collegiate careers.

New for 2011-12 was the debut of the Hogspy awards, modeled after the ESPY's, to recognize academic and athletic achievements as well as leadership and community service.

COMPLIANCE

The University of Arkansas Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is proud to have your interest and support in the Razorbacks. The Razorback Athletics Compliance Office works hard to educate its student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters on the rules and regulations mandated by the Southeastern Conference and the NCAA.

SEC and NCAA rules and regulations can be complex, and every situation is different. The Razorback Compliance Office makes every effort to disseminate information, and they encourage student-athletes, coaches, staff and boosters to contact them if there are questions.

The Razorback Athletics Department is proud of your support of the Razorbacks, but we caution you that inadvertent actions by our fans may jeopardize the department, current student-athletes or potential student-athletes.

MARKETING

The excitement and support of the University of Arkansas athletic teams is at an all-time high. Recently, single-game attendance records have been set for many sports including football, baseball, gymnastics, soccer and soccer. Bud Walton Arena has also seen an insurgence of fans with Mike Anderson's return to Fayetteville with his "Fastest 40 Minutes in Basketball" recapturing the spirit of Razorback fans.

State-of-the-art facilities, the nation's best coaches and players and the greatest fans in college athletics come together for some of the most exciting events that take place in the state of Arkansas. The Razorback marketing staff is a big part of the behind-the scenes success of all 19 teams at the university. They assist in the branding of our image, getting information to our fans and helping to fill our venues.

Their work is evident in our stadiums, on the videoboards and during pre-event, halftime and post-events. They work with sponsors, maintain the department's social media presence and welcome new fans with creative ticket and suite packages. The Razorback Marketing Office also handles the University's trademark licensing program ensuring fans get the Razorback quality they have come to expect.

SPIRIT SQUAD

Along with being a Razorback, serving as a Razorback Spirit Squad member has a long tradition at the University of Arkansas. Currently, the Razorbacks have two co-ed cheer squads - Arkansas Cheer and Razorback Cheer that inspire the crowds at all home and away football games, men's and women's basketball games, volleyball matches, gymnastics meets and many other pep rallies and on-campus and NWA community events.

Arkansas also has two dance teams, Arkansas Pom and Razorback Pom, that perform at all home football games, men's and women's basketball games as well as pep rallies and on-campus and community events. The squads also perform at baseball games as the RBI Girls. Both the cheer and dance teams compete nationally at the Universal Cheer and Dance team competitions in Orlando in January.

Arkansas has a team of uniformed mascots, led by the original Big Red, the Fighting Razorback. Sue E. joined the family along with kid-sized Pork Chop in the late 1990s. Boss Hog is a 9-foot-tall inflatable mascot and Ribby, the baseball mascot complete the mascot team. They can be found at all Razorback games and events.

Jean Nail serves as the director of the spirit squad program and is assisted by Kraig Jimenez, cheer coach and Brooke Bailey, dance coach.

SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Arkansas Sports Medicine staff is committed to provide each Razorback student-athlete with state-of-the-art medical care. The goal of our sports medicine program is to assist every student-athlete in staying healthy and injury free. The athletic training staff, in conjunction with our team physicians, will coordinate the delivery of professional and comprehensive preventative, treatment, rehabilitation, and counseling services.

A Tradition of Excellence

The Razorback Foundation, a 501(c)(3) entity, partners with Razorback Athletics in providing support to approximately 460 student-athletes in the classroom and in competition. Through contributions from our members, we are able to provide scholarships, financial support for facility enhancements and other programs designed to elevate student-athletes and Arkansas athletics – all while advancing the mission of the University of Arkansas.

Being an active member of the Razorback Foundation is not only an investment in the athletic program and the University of Arkansas, it also unlocks many benefits to you. Those include priority seating and parking for athletic events and access to exclusive members-only happenings.

Building Upon a Tradition of Excellence

In the early 1970s, the Razorback Scholarship Fund was established in an effort to create an innovative way for fans to support the athletic program while receiving benefits and recognition.

Today, the Razorback Foundation still aims to provide funding necessary to help all student-athletes excel while providing rewarding benefits to our members.

By supporting Razorback Athletics and student-athletes through your tax deductible donation to the Razorback Foundation, members demonstrate a commitment to reaching new heights while ensuring that the past is honored and the future is built upon continued excellence in achievement. Contributions help attract top student-athletes, coaches and thousands of dedicated fans to the University to cheer on the Hogs.

Our Mission

The stated mission of the Razorback Foundation, Inc., is to support the athletic endeavors of the University of Arkansas Razorbacks. The Foundation assists our student-athletes by providing for scholarships, facilities and various programs that enable them to realize their dreams of achieving a quality college education while participating in athletics on a nationally competitive level.

Membership Levels

The opportunity to participate in the annual fund giving to the Razorback Foundation, Inc., has several levels, beginning at the $50 Razorback level and continuing up to Broyles-Matthews Scholarship Platinum ($20,000 or more). For more information about levels of giving and benefits, please visit the foundation's website at RazorbackFoundation.com.
